New Waves of Big Bombers Lash Out At Reich Targets

R.A.F. Piles Destruction on Ruhr Valley in Day and Night Raids

LONDON, June 16 (Wednesday) (AP).—Still digging out invasion paths by air toward Axis Europe, waves of R.A.F. bombers were heard thundering out over England's southeast coast toward Germany early today, as the German radio went dead in the middle of a programme.

R.A.F. fighters also carried out intruder patrols over the continent, it was disclosed with the announcement that an enemy plane had been shot down over its base in Denmark during the night.

Meantime, the German air force, which has been concentrating on the defensive of late, sent a few raiders over two southeast coast towns of England. The Nazi attackers made a feeble stab, causing slight damage. No casualties were reported.

In the continuous day and night attacks, the R.A.F. Monday night piled new destruction on the suffering Ruhr valley, especially the steel and communications centre of Oberhausen.

While bombers struck steel and coal targets in Oberhausen on the Rhine-Herne Canal for the fourth consecutive night raid on Germany, lighter planes, many of them piloted by Canadians, ranged far over France and the Low Countries, attacking railway targets and barges near the Rhine, Dixmude in Belgium and Roubaix and Abbeville in France.

Almost before these planes were back, cannon-armed day fighters of the new tactical air force went roaring out to slam scores of targets along the western rim of Hitler's defences.

Waves of R.A.F. fighters and light bombers shuttled back and forth across the Channel in the direction of Calais Tuesday, presumably aiming at enemy airfields, water and rail transportation, following up the night-time sorties of Mosquitos, Whirlwinds, Bostons, Typhoons, Beaufighters and Mustangs.

Sicily Scene Of Newest Bomb Raid

Two-Ton Blockbuster Bombs on Messina

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, June 15 (AP).—The strategic Allied air force has again beaten heavily at Sicily, centring the fire of two-ton blockbuster bombs upon Messina, the ferry approach to Southern Italy proper, Allied headquarters disclosed today.

This attack was driven in by R.A.F. Wellington bombers Sunday night and yesterday morning. Messina, already one of the most bombed targets in the whole of the Mediterranean, was left alight with great fires. Its railway yards and harbor area were hit repeatedly.

In these and other night operations by the Northwest Africa air forces no Allied plane was lost.

SWEEPS FROM MALTA AND CAIRO BASES

At the same time, official bulletins from Malta and Cairo told of new offensive sweeps from both of those Allied bases in the three-sided campaign to break down the last of the island approaches to the Italian mainland.

Malta-based fighters and intruders swept over both Sicily and Southern Italy, bombing war factories and turning bomb and cannon fire upon Italian railway communications.

A single challenging German fighter plane was shot down.

From Cairo, long-range R.A.F. fighters went out again over the Aegean Sea, setting fire to an enemy schooner.

The day brought also an announcement that further study of reconnaissance photographs had established that the Flying Fortress attack of June 5 on the Italian naval base of La Spezia had scored a direct hit on the forward deck of a 35,000-ton Italian battleship of the Littorio class. Her deck plates were buckled and it appeared that a forward gun turret also had been hit.

Fifty-Seven Age Limit For Officers

May Be Older In Home Service

OTTAWA, June 15 (CP).—Defence Minister Ralston announced tonight that a maximum age limit of fifty-seven has been fixed for officers employed in operational units of the Canadian army overseas.

In a departmental announcement, Col. Ralston said an age limit had also been set for certain other appointments and a maximum age of retirement of sixty set for all officers in the Canadian army.

The age limit for officers in non-operational units or establishments overseas is set at fifty-eight. The age limit for operational units and headquarters in Canada is fifty-nine, and for non-operational units or establishments in Canada is sixty.

The announcement said this "important measure . . . has recently been approved."

DIFFERENTIAL ESTABLISHED

The announcement added: "This will establish a differential between the various components of the army at home and overseas. An officer returned to Canada on attaining the age limit overseas may, if he can be absorbed, be employed for a further two years in Canada. Also, an officer on operations in Canada

Goats Defended Linosa, Asserts Italian Radio

Says Allies Had to Cut Their Throats

LONDON, June 16 (Wednesday) (CP).—Italian praise was bestowed today upon the goats of Linosa for what a Rome broadcaster termed their "fierce" resistance to the Allies capturing the little Sicilian Straits island.

Said the voice:

"The British tried to capture the island, on several occasions sending landing parties. They failed because the fierce island goats drove them out every time.

"In the end," the voice went on, "a British midshipman swam ashore and cut the animals' throats while they were asleep."

The version of the event, recorded by The Associated Press, said nothing of the capture of Pantelleria, a sister island, where more than 10,000 Italians threw in the sponge without arguing with Allied landing forces.

STUDY SOCIAL SECURITY

QUEBEC, June 15 (CP).—The Legislative Assembly adopted by a vote of 43-9 today a bill that would authorize the Government to set up a three-man health insurance commission to study a Social Security plan for Quebec.

SEND DUTCH TO GERMANY

LONDON, June 15 (CP).—A D.N.B. dispatch broadcast by the Paris radio said today that Germany has ordered practically all of Holland's youngest and fittest men transported to Germany to help meet the Reich's acute labor shortage.

Vichy France Police Official Is Killed

LONDON, June 15 (CP).—A Vichy France police official was killed and two others were wounded when a band of twenty young Frenchmen attacked a police station in the Department of Puy le Dome, D.N.B., German news agency, reported in a broadcast recorded by The Associated Press today.

The dispatch said the attack was made in an attempt to release two men who were being held for compulsory work. The raiding party accidentally killed its own leader. All the attackers, who were later arrested, "used arms of British origin," the broadcast claimed.

The King Visiting Armies in Africa

LONDON, June 16 (Wednesday) (CP).—The following announcement was issued from Buckingham Palace this morning: "The King, who is accompanied by Secretaries of State for War and Air, is visiting the British First and Eighth Armies, the Royal Navy and the Royal Air Force in North Africa.

"His Majesty has welcomed this opportunity," the announcement said, "of seeing United States Armies and Air Forces and the French Forces, with whom his own forces have been so closely associated in the recent memorable victory, and of investing General Dwight D. Eisenhower, Commander-in-Chief of Allied Forces in North Africa, with the Insignia of the Knight Grand Cross of the Order of the Bath."

The King was accompanied by Sir Archibald Sinclair, Secretary of State for Air, and Sir James Grigg, Secretary of State for War. It was the King's second visit to an active war theatre since the beginning of the conflict in September, 1939.

In the early part of 1940 he visited the British Army in France and saw part of the Maginot Line, making the journey across the Channel aboard a British destroyer.

Activity of Kiska Volcano Adds To Troubles of Japanese

HEADQUARTERS, ALASKA DEFENCE COMMAND, June 14 (Delayed) (AP).—Returning bomber pilots reported today the Kiska volcano has become active, adding to troubles of Japanese occupying that Aleutian island.

Pilots who have used the volcano on the north end of Kiska as a navigation point said the crater is smoking and they saw some lava flowing down the sides of the peak.

The first report of the volcano's activity was received June 6. Since then pilots have reported it possibly may be causing actual danger to the Japanese, perhaps dropping rocks or ashes on their positions.

It is considered unlikely that it will force evacuation of any portion of the island. The volcano is on the extreme north end of Kiska. Japanese concentrations are in the south position, several miles from the peak.

Evacuation Widespread In Germany

Civilians Going To Rural Areas

BERNE, June 15 (AP).—The devastating hail of Allied bombs on Western Germany, victim of 600 air alarms and 180 heavy aerial attacks, has forced a widespread evacuation of civilians to safer rural areas, Nazi newspapers reaching Berne disclosed today.

Das Reich said evacuees from Northern Westphalia should go to Bavaria, and those from the Berlin area to Brandenburg, East Prussia and Pomerania.

Duesseldorf, a saturation target of the R.A.F., was reported to be one of the main cities being evacuated. Heavy losses of life and great damage to buildings were reported there.

Even families not bombed out, but whose men must stay to work in industries, should leave the cities "as a law of common sense," said Das Reich.

Indicating the tremendous damage in Essen, The Essener National Zeitung estimated that five months' work would be needed to build emergency housing there, and that 10,000 persons who must work in Essen need new homes.

The Allied air forces have caused 600 air alarms and carried out 180 heavy aerial attack since the all-out offensive got under way.

The Mulhauser Tagblatt said evacuees insist that German anti-aircraft fire is not sufficient protection. They, said the newspaper, are the ones who doubt that the cities of Western Germany can hold out against the violence of the bombardments and are really defeatists.

California Records Strong Earthquake

PASADENA, Calif., June 15 (AP).—A strong earthquake, whose epicentre was estimated to be 2,400 miles distant, was recorded on the seismograph of the California Institute of Technology at 11:27:53 a.m. (P.D.T.) today.

The University of California seismograph at Berkeley, Calif., also recorded an earthquake beginning at 11:28 a.m. It lasted one hour, Dr. Perry Byerly, seismologist, reported.

The disturbance originated at a distance of about 2,500 miles in a southern direction.

BULLETINS

DOUBLE BLOW COMING

LONDON, June 15 (CP).—The Leningrad radio, recorded by the Ministry of Information tonight said "There can be no doubt that the blow against Hitlerite Germany from the west will coincide with a mighty crushing blow of the Red Army from the east." These attacks, the broadcast said, will merge "in a single mighty blow that will strike the death knell for the Fascists."

GERMAN VICTORY

BERNE, June 16 (AP).—Dispatches from neutral Turkey tonight described the appointment of Col.-Gen. Ludwin van Csata as Hungary's new War Minister as a German victory over Premier Kallay and other officials who oppose additional aid to the Axis. Germany was said to be paying Csata for support in Russia with a guarantee against any attack from Rumania aimed at regaining Transylvania.

PROBE AT NEW YORK

NEW YORK, June 16 (Wednesday) (AP).—In an unprecedented early-morning meeting, New York City Council today voted a resolution calling for a sweeping investigation of the affairs of all city departments under Mayor La Guardia. The resolution, passed by a vote of 18 to 5 with one councilman not voting, provides for a committee of seven council members with powers to investigate "any matters relating to the property, affairs or government of the city or of any county within the city."

CONVOY AT GIBRALTAR

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP).—Radio Berlin said tonight that a convoy of twenty-five ballast-laden ships had reached Gibraltar from the Mediterranean, shepherded by the new British battleship King George V, the aircraft carrier Formidable and small United States naval units.

Controller of Strike-Bound Yards Named

Wilfrid Gagnon Gets Post in Quebec

OTTAWA, June 15 (CP).—The Munitions Department tonight announced the appointment of Wilfrid Gagnon, formerly director-general of its general purchasing branch, as controller of the shipyards of Morton Engineering and Drydock Co., Quebec, and George T. Davie and Sons, Ltd., Lauzon, Que.

Approximately 7,000 shipyard workers from these plants and from the plant of the Davie Shipbuilding and Repairing Co. now are on strike, after voting yesterday to strike in support of their demands for wage adjustments and a closed shop for the Canadian Congress of Labor Unions concerned.

The Munitions Department's announcement said Mr. Gagnon's appointment was made to co-ordinate the shipbuilding activities in the city and district of Quebec, and that the Government was giving consideration to the establishment of a crown company, which eventually will take over the operation of these and other plants in the Quebec area as a unified operation for the building of naval escort vessels.

"As and when the Government may proceed with the formation of its crown company, Mr. Gagnon will be president of that company," the departmental statement said, "and

Seventeen Die When Bombers Collide in Air

CARRIZOZO, N.M., June 15 (AP).—Two four-engine army bombers collided and crashed, one in flames, today in the Ruidoso Mountain resort section of South Central New Mexico. Of those aboard, only one crewman parachuted to safety.

Reports as to the number of dead varied, but tonight Deputy Sheriff Nick Vega said army ground crews had recovered bodies of thirteen airmen. Vega said seventeen were believed to have died.

The officer reported that six charred bodies were found in the smoking fuselage of one craft, and that other bodies and wreckage were strewn over a wide area.

William Ferguson, rancher, reported the accident to Sheriff A. Stover's office.

Official announcement concerning the accident was withheld pending notification of next of kin of the victims.

Highlights of the War News

By The Canadian Press

MEDITERRANEAN—Allies reported to have closed Syrian-Turkish frontier; Italians report Allied fleet marshaling near Sicily; Messina takes new aerial pounding.

WESTERN FRONT—Germans reported evacuating non-essential populations of heavily-bombed cities; R.A.F. pounds Ruhr valley for fourth successive night, hitting Oberhausen.

RUSSIA—Red troops beat back four Nazi counter-attacks, inflicting heavy losses on enemy in Orel sector.

IMPORTANT OBJECTIVE WHEN INVASION STARTS

The above picture is from a photograph of Bergen on the western coast of Norway, an important target in any invasion strategy the Allies may employ in Scandinavia. Bergen is linked to Oslo, the Norwegian capital, by an excellent railway system. Its port facilities are ideal. If an Allied invasion sweeps across the Lowlands, one of the first objectives would undoubtedly be Antwerp.

Invasion Speculation Soars As Syrian-Turkish Frontier Reported Closed by Allies

From Europe Day by Day—

THE TIMES, London

News and Comment on International Events selected from The Times daily and published in The Daily Colonist by special arrangement with The Vancouver Daily Province.

(Copyright, 1943, by Southam Co.)

LONDON, June 15.—Next phase of the war in the Mediterranean, opening with renewed air attacks on Sicilian ports and airdromes, says The Times' military correspondent, calls for even closer co-operation of land, sea and air forces.

The role of the navy in maintaining a blockade tended to be overlooked, but it was actually the work of British destroyers and motor torpedo boats which had prevented an evacuation from Tunisia that did a great deal to ensure capture of the Italian islands. The 137 Axis ships destroyed in the Tunisian campaign were shared almost equally between submarines, aircraft and surface vessels.

Recent events have brought the Allies not only rich booty and great victories, but also a fund of war experience certain to be of the greatest value later. Formation of a tactical air force based in Britain shows how well the lesson of high speed and combined operations has been learned.

An astounding fact about the capture of Pantelleria was the absence of casualties to the Allies' land and sea forces. The only man who suffered was a member of a landing party who was bitten by a donkey. Ninety per cent of the Italian garrison surrendered without firing a shot.

Damage done by the British navy's shells was immense, and firing was remarkably accurate, concrete pillboxes being split top to bottom.

It is now clear that Mussolini himself ordered Pantelleria's surrender when the commander of the garrison, General Maffei, said the bombing and shelling could not be endured any longer.

Axis fears of a Balkan upheaval are growing, says The Times' Ankara correspondent. Both Berlin and Rome are becoming suspicious lest Turkey should enter the war against them. Turkey is very much pleased over the Italian defeat as Allied supplies will now reach her more quickly through the Mediterranean.

Expert Turkish military opinion, which, until recently, was certain Hitler would launch a big Eastern offensive this month, has swung over to the opposite view and now thinks the Nazis must wait until they see whether the Allies open their offensive against the Continent. The Axis have had to reinforce their garrisons near the Turkish frontier in Europe and in Eastern Greece.

While there is great disquiet and unrest in the Balkan countries which now anticipate German defeat, it would be a great mistake, warns The Times' correspondent, to assume that there are likely to be dramatic developments immediately. Crete and the Dodecanese Islands are keys to the Balkans and nothing decisive can happen while they are in Axis possessing.

De Gaulle Hopes To Solve Crisis For Committee

ALGIERS, June 15 (AP).—Gen. Charles de Gaulle proposed today that an extraordinary session of the French Committee of National Liberation be held tomorrow, at which the seven members of the committee and six commissioners would attempt to solve the present political crisis.

A Reuter's News Agency dispatch from Algiers Tuesday said Gen. Henri Giraud had accepted the proposal for the plenary session.

A spokesman said that De Gaulle, who had been threatening to resign, was dissatisfied with the inability of the seven-man committee to reach an accord and that he hoped, by including the six commissioners, to crystallize the opinion of the French leadership in behalf of his policies.

Observers Think It May Mean United Nations' Armies on Move

LONDON, June 15 (AP).—The spotlight of the Mediterranean war shifted dramatically today from the centre to the East, where the Allies were reported semi-officially from Ankara to have closed Syria's frontier with Turkey.

London sources left the report in the air without confirmation, denial or comment, but unofficial observers said the first implication was that the British Ninth and Tenth Armies and United States troops that have been building up strength for months in Syria, Palestine, Iraq and Iran, might be on the move.

The Daily Herald quoted German statements that the Allies are massing an "invasion army" in Syria, and that all British garrisons have been reinforced.

Thus was added new fuel to the fires of Axis invasion anxiety. During the day the Italians reported an Allied fleet massing near Sicily, the Germans warned of a possible new Russian offensive, and the Germans were said to have reshuffled their top generals in commands along the edges of the "European fortress."

Closing of the Turkish-Syrian frontier, nearly 350 miles long, might be intended to cover up moves by Allied troops in the border area where conceivably they could be massing for sea thrusts towards Crete, the Dodecanese, or Greece itself.

A British Broadcasting Corporation report said the frontier was closed "to check leakage of information from Syria and Palestine to Germany through Turkey."

Semi-official sources in Ankara said the frontier was closed at 6 o'clock tonight. A German radio broadcast said the action was taken at 6 a.m.

ADMIRAL CUNNINGHAM HOLDS CONFERENCE

Observers noted that Admiral Sir John Cunningham, new British commander-in-chief in the Levant, had held a ninety-minute conference Monday with President Ismet Inonu twenty-four hours before the frontier closure was reported. His was the

Counter-Attacks in Orel Are Repulsed

LONDON, June 15 (CP).—Four new German counter-attacks in the reactivated Orel region were hurled back today, it was announced tonight by the Russians, who said enemy troops ceased their attempts to retake lost territory at sundown after two unsuccessful days.

One of the German thrusts, carried out under the cover of a smoke screen, penetrated to the outskirts of a populated place northwest of Mtsensk, which was captured recently by the Russians, before being beaten off, the Soviet Tuesday midnight communique announced.

The war bulletin, recorded here by the Soviet radio monitor, said the Russians killed about 400 Germans, destroyed or damaged a number of tanks and captured some material in staving off the sharp German drives.

The day's unsuccessful attempts followed similar counter-attacks by the Germans Monday night northeast of Mtsensk, which the Russians said were turned back with heavy losses.

CLAIM PRINCIPAL FIGHTING IN KUBAN

Earlier, the Germans claimed the principal fighting was in the Kuban area of the Caucasus. They told of new Soviet drives which they said were unsuccessful.

Soviet airmen raided German rear positions, attacking railway stations, trains and stores. The communique said huge fires broke out in the bombed areas and heavy explosions were seen.

Russian artillerymen shelling German positions west of Rostov were reported to have wiped out about two companies of enemy infantry in addition to destroying guns, blockhouses and observation posts. Soviet gunners in the Sevsk area destroyed a German artillery battery and routed a supply column.

On the front west of Moscow, Russian units were said to have wiped out about 200 German officers and men and silenced half a dozen artillery and mortar batteries.

Victoria Cross Is Awarded to Gurkha Officer

LONDON, June 15 (CP).—Award of the Victoria Cross to a Gurkha officer for "unsurpassed bravery" a few hours before Gen. Sir Bernard Montgomery launched the assault on Wadi Akarit last April was announced in The London Gazette tonight.

The feat which won the officer the fifth Indian V.C. of the war opened the way for his division to penetrate hills on the capture of which depended the plan of the entire corps.

He is Subadar Laibahadur Thapa, second in command of a company of Gurkha Rifles, who, with a small party of riflemen, mopped up machine-gun nests and reached his objective under withering fire.

SIX-TO-ONE SCORE

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP).—United States four-engined bombers over Europe have been shooting German planes out of the skies at a ratio of nearly six to one. In eighteen heavy bombardment missions four-engined bombers made approximately 1,600 sorties against German targets and shot down 571 German planes, probably destroyed 187 and damaged 231 in aerial combat.

PASSES OBJECTIVE

CHARLOTTETOWN, June 15 (CP).—Prince Edward Island has passed its objective of $3,000 in the Greek War Relief Fund campaign, it was announced today.

Rabaul Under Heavy Raid By Bombers

Large Fires and Explosions Caused

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN AUSTRALIA, June 16 (Wednesday) (CP).—Nineteen heavy bombers dropped twenty-three tons of bombs yesterday on Rabaul, New Britain, the High Command announced today.

It was the fourth heavy raid since last Thursday on the Japanese air stronghold on the northern tip of New Britain.

The Japanese air force, in a renewed showing of force, sent fifty-seven planes in raids on the Bena Bena area, ninety miles northwest of Lae, New Guinea, and nine other planes attacked Dobodura.

Yesterday's bomb weight on Rabaul's airdromes increased to 135 tons the total dropped in the four raids. Forty tons were dropped in last Thursday's raid, forty-two Friday and thirty Sunday.

In yesterday's raid, seven large fires were started and heavy explosions were touched off on Rabaul's Lakunai airdrome.

The raids represented a continued stepping up of bombing blows by the Allied air force which, since last May 27, also has dumped 100 tons of bombs in three raids on Lae, New Guinea, and more than seventy tons in four raids on Wewak.

The Japanese raids on the Bena Bena area focused attention on a new Allied sector. Although well inland it is north of the Huon Peninsula, beyond two vital Japanese bases, Lae and Salamaua, toward which Australian and American ground forces have been infiltrating from the Papuan Peninsula.

The communique said the Japanese raiders included twenty-seven bombers escorted by thirty fighters. It made no mention of the damage done at Bena Bena, but said slight damage was caused by the nine raiders of Dobodura.

The Rabaul raid lasted two hours and was directed both at Lakunai and Rapopo airfields.

Say New Viceroy Of India Chosen

LONDON, June 16 (Wednesday) (CP).—The Daily Mail said today it understood that a new Viceroy of India had been chosen in succession to the Marquess of Linlithgow, who has been Viceroy since 1936, and that a formal announcement of the change would be made soon.

The Daily Express said Sir John Anderson, Lord President of the Council, has been mentioned prominently for the office.

"Little Navy" Assault Force Landing Team Being Coached To Perfection for Invasion

Men With Cocoa-Smeared Faces in Flat-Bottomed Flotillas Will Pave Way for Big Troopships

SOMEWHERE OFF THE ENGLISH COAST, June 16 (Wednesday) (AP).—The first wave of an Allied invasion probably will be carried on to the European coast by men with cocoa-smeared faces who will splash in through the surf from flat-bottomed flotillas, which can lay down their own smoke screens, drum out their own supporting fire and ferry men and tanks ashore through water barely inches deep.

At bases along this coast this new "little navy" assault force landing team is being coached to clock-work perfection. It will be ready for the job of driving the first wedge into the Nazi fortifications of Hitler's Atlantic wall.

A series of combined operations and demonstrations of landing craft and their personnel serves to illustrate the technique of the assault.

SCENE MAY BE ENACTED SOON

This is the scene which may be enacted soon in grim reality on a terrific scale:

The big ships of the regular fleet cover the inland heights with turret guns and the sky with anti-aircraft batteries.

Roaring down from overhead haze are heavily-armed Typhoons of the aerial support, their wings almost awash as their guns come to bear on the beach.

In past the destroyer line streak little landing and landing support boats.

Some are L.C.S. boats—landing craft support. They are little destroyers, armed and armored. As they race into range their mortars bark and thin trails of white mark the high curving arc of fire as they make smoke to screen their landing. Twin anti-aircraft machine-guns in revolving turrets cover the shore.

RUB COCOA IN OILED FACES

In very light P.L.C.'s—personnel landing craft—veteran Royal Marines crouch out of sight. They have oiled their faces and rubbed in the cocoa, which cakes reddish brown. They drape snood-like color nets over their heads and shoulders which helps to camouflage them by changing their silhouette appearance.

Five hundred yards off-shore they slide into position—belly-flat with their heads down along the decks. The Bren gunners are in ready position.

The boats grind in to the gravel, and in that instant the men plunge into the surf and deploy at a dead run.

The little P.L.C.'s pull off the beach before they are driven high by the surf. They wheel and run for safety behind the mushrooming screen of smoke.

With them come the L.C.T.—landing craft tank boats—built to hold light tanks and Bren gun carriers.

These are only the light craft—the first wave.

Backing them up are the bigger landing craft for troops in force and large numbers of tanks.

It is the job of the flat-bottomed fleet to put enough men and guns ashore to develop a beachhead where a big navy can move in and full-size troopships be brought within ferrying distance of land.

latest in a series of trips into Turkey by Allied war leaders, beginning with Prime Minister Churchill's visit to Adana, February 1.

Sir John also conferred with Turkey's Premier, Foreign Minister and chief of staff.

In an interview with Frank J. O'Brien, of The Associated Press at Ankara, Premier Sukru Saracoglu left the impression that within the framework of the Allied war and peace plans, Turkey is playing an important role in the development of Balkan affairs and that she hopes to contribute to the postwar reorganization in the Balkans.

Turkey would continue to maintain the strictest vigilance, Saracoglu said.

Later, in a speech to the closing session of the People's Party Congress, broadcast by Ankara radio, Saracoglu reaffirmed Turkey's "firm policies" of neutrality. The perils of war are not lessened or completely past, he added.

Russia and Turkey "have proved to be sincerely bound by treaties," while treaties with Britain tie Turkey and Britain "for many years and with far-reaching scope."

GERMAN RADIO REPORTS DIFFERENTLY

The German radio reported that the Premier said Turkey's friendship pact with Germany was "shown by events to be in the true interests of both parties."

Another Berlin broadcast asserted that Britain was "trying to bring Turkey in on her side, but the Turk will not be pressed."

Fighting French headquarters here said the closure, if true, probably was for military reasons with "no diplomatic or economic significance."

Axis radios told of new attacks against Allied warships, transports and landing barges which they reported were gathering off North African ports and threatening Sicily. A Rome commentator called upon the Italian people to prepare for "the decisive phase approaching."

A Berlin broadcast reminded the Germans of the ever-present danger in the East, reporting that the Russians were massing south of Moscow.

Field Marshal Erwin Rommel was reported commanding German forces in Southern France, across from the Allied armies in Algeria.

IN COMMAND OF FORMER UNOCCUPIED ZONE

His command was said to cover roughly the former unoccupied zone, while Field Marshal Karl Rudolf Gerd von Rundstedt retains command of Western France and the Atlantic Wall.

A similar split was reported from the same quarters to have been made in Norway, with Gen. Nikolaus von Falkenhorst's territory being reduced to the area from Trondheim south, including Oslo, and Col.-Gen. Edward Dietl, commander in Finland, entrusted with Northern Norway. Field Marshal Siegmund Wilhelm List had previously been reported commanding in Southeast Europe.

A Rome broadcast reported by The Daily Express said Axis planes had battled Allied convoys in the Mediterranean "in a battle which now has lasted for three days and has not lost any of its violence," and a Berlin broadcast told of new attacks against Allied shipping in the Sicilian strait, with a landing craft and six transports reported damaged at Pantelleria.

In London, some military commentators suggested there might be no immediate further action in the Mediterranean because Allied plans are "far ahead of schedule."

TORONTO, June 15 (CP). — Just when quiet was restored on the Halifax-Kingston hall of fame front, Montreal has broken out with a claim "without fear of contradiction" that hockey originated in Montreal. Now, probably, we'll have to listen to the arguments all over again. Kingston and Halifax will never let that crack pass.

Baz O'Meara of The Montreal Star started the thing by publishing the views of one, J. Clem Beauchamp who, says O'Meara, "will tell you without fear of contradiction that hockey as an organized game, or even as a disorganized one, had its beginnings in Montreal."

And Baz gives Beauchamp the role of authority with this paragraph: "Before the late Frank Calder died he was working on a history of hockey. Beauchamp was going to supply him with much of the material covering the origins of the game. Calder had investigated the Beauchamp findings, had agreed they were pretty much error-proof."

And wait until this word gets around — the repercussions will be catastrophic: "Claims of Kingston, Halifax or other centres can be dismissed no matter how logically presented by such people as Jim Sutherland (of Kingston) or those Haligonians who claim the game came from the Indians."

ATHLETES AT WAR

Bob Whitelaw, twenty-six, defenceman with Providence Reds, in the American Hockey League, has joined the R.C.A.F. as an airframe mechanic. A former Winnipeg junior, Whitelaw once played with Harringay, in the English League. He was with Detroit Red Wings in 1940-41 . . . Monty Muckle, thirty-four, another former Winnipeg junior, has enlisted as an R.C.A.F. electrician. Monty never played professional hockey but was a star with Moncton Hawks when they won the Allan Cup in 1934-35. Later he played in the Eastern United States Amateur League with Pittsburgh Yellow Jackets and Hershey Bears.

Gene Dugas, new southpaw outfielder with Toronto Leafs, was born at St. Jean de Matha, Joliette, Quebec. Now thirty-four, he broke into professional ball with Wichita in the Western League in 1930 and since then has been with Pittsburgh Pirates, Kansas City Blues, Albany, Washington Senators, Montreal Royals, Baltimore and Nashville. He has a lifetime batting average of .321 . . . Kingston Badminton Club building has been sold to the Department of National Defence, naval service . . . Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., softball had two no-hit games within a week. First Duck McNaughton, of Falcons, turned the trick. Then Tony Bergamin, of Steelers, duplicated with a 23-0 no-hitter against Chrome. Tony issued only two walks against McNaughton's seven.

Howe Refuses To Risk Loss Of Aluminum

Will Not Consider Probe of Charges

OTTAWA, June 15 (CP).—Munitions Minister Howe told the House of Commons today he would not risk stopping or delaying production of aluminum to hold an investigation into either an international cartel or the reasonableness of the price paid for aluminum.

He was replying to Gordon Graydon, Progressive Conservative House leader, who said the Government should appoint a royal commission to investigate the charges made against aluminum companies, move for an international commission to study the international aspects and, on the basis of the information obtained, re-negotiate contracts for the purchase of aluminum.

M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader, in the House of Commons Monday said profits "unparalleled in history" were being "exacted" from the United Nations by the Aluminum Company of Canada and its associated companies.

"I know it to be a fact that the personnel of Aluminum Limited comprise all the men who are experienced in the art of making aluminum," said Mr. Howe.

"This happens to be the only company that is making aluminum in this country. As one who must provide aluminum for our war effort, I would not want to take the responsibility of taking the attention of the executives of Aluminum Limited from their task of making aluminum. I would not want to place them in the witness box to about their prewar experiences with international cartels."

GRAYDON QUESTIONS WISDOM OF POLICY

"Surely in Canada we have not yet reached the stage where a Government need suffer from a state of crippling paralysis in relation to international combinations with which it has sometimes to come in contact and with which it has to deal," Mr. Graydon said.

"I may be entirely erroneous, but my judgment is that while we are in this battle to get aluminum to make airplanes to win the war it would be utter madness to start another battle between the Government of Canada and the sources of aluminum," Mr. Howe said.

John Blackmore, New Democracy leader, said he admired the way Mr. Coldwell presented his complaint about the aluminum interests, but he noticed that no remedy was suggested.

. . . the C.C.F. proposed Government ownership of such enterprises, it would involve a far bigger bureaucracy than under private interests and mean much more difficulty in placing key men in the right places.

the appointment of other directors, one of whom will be a representative of organized labor, will be announced."

WARNS AGAINST SEPARATE SETTLEMENTS

QUEBEC, June 15 (CP).—Paul Marquette, provincial director of the Canadian Congress of Labor, said tonight that any attempt to make separate settlements in the strike of 7,000 workers from three Quebec district shipyards would result in "intensifying dissatisfaction."

Mr. Marquette said he "liked" the appointment by the Munitions Department of Wilfrid Gagnon as controller of the shipyards of Morton Engineering and Drydock Company and George T. Davie and Sons. Then he added:

"But thinking of the Davie Shipbuilding and Repairing Company, I declare now that if one wants to conclude separate agreements, it will result in intensifying dissatisfaction."

Meanwhile, employees of the three yards remained away from work twenty-four hours after they voted to strike in support of their demands for wage adjustments and a closed shop for the C.C.L.

As the strike rounded out its first day, civil officials of the nearby centres of St. Romauld, Levis and Lauzon announced their intention of supporting the strikers "because their demands seem absolutely equitable."

ALL REMAINS CALM AT YARDS

All remained calm at the yards of Morton Engineering and Drydock Company, Davie Shipbuilding and Repairing Company and George T. Davie and Sons. A few strikers walked around the silent yards tonight, but there was no picketing. The companies announced closing of the yards at 6 a.m. today after the night shift workers completed their shift and joined the walkout.

The strike started last night following a meeting of the workers called by the Canadian Congress of Labor. The meeting followed by four days the taking of a strike vote at the plants by Department of Labor representatives, and it was announced at last night's meeting that 90 per cent of the workers had voted to strike if their demands were not met.

Company officials issued statements saying that they were willing to comply with most of the strikers' demands, that they would join the men in seeing permission to pay higher wages, and that the sole issue between the companies and the men was that of a closed shop.

Conservationist Lauds Protection Of B.C. Timber

"The people of British Columbia should be proud of what has been done for the protection of its beautiful timber, and you should protect what you have," said Will J. Reid, president of the Hancock Oil Company, of Long Beach, Cal., here yesterday, in speaking of the work done by the National Resources Conservation League and the Government of this province. He conferred with Premier Hart soon after his arrival.

Mr. Reid is also president of an organization of sportsmen who furnish $100,000 yearly to preserve breeding grounds for migratory water birds in Canada. This association, Ducks Unlimited, held its annual meeting in Calgary recently.

Mr. Reid spoke of the splendid work done to conserve the Buttle Lake timbered beauty, where only the timber limit at the lower end of the lake is now being logged. Five permits on the other side, forming the wealth of big timber in the virgin Strathcona Park have now reverted to the Provincial Government, who have handed over other equally valuable timber areas to the companies interested.

"British Columbia still has a big job to do," says Mr. Reid, who believes the value of British Columbia's timber resources and natural scenic beauty is incalculable. He predicts that after the war the tourist industry will bring in four times the wealth it has heretofore.

Citizens Approve Hospital Report

Favor Enlargement Of Facilities Here

Enlargement of existing facilities and co-ordinated use of buildings, equipment and services already available for hospital purposes is approved and endorsed throughout the entire city, judging by expressions of opinion by representatives of numerous organizations and citizens generally following the publication on Sunday last of the report of the Greater Victoria Hospitalization Committee, whose chairman, R. H. B. Ker, made public the findings of the committee.

"There is no sense in scattering hospital buildings here, there and everywhere," said J. V. Johnson, president of the Chamber of Commerce. "If buildings were the only problem, a half million dollar hospital on the Royal Roads site might be justified, even though it should be dismantled after the war. But there is also the problem of trained personnel, duplicate equipment and many other factors.

"There is plenty room for expansion on the grounds of the Royal Jubilee Hospital," Mr. Johnson added, "and it is not practical to pass up an opportunity to use to best advantage the facilities which are immediately available."

Dr. D. M. Baillie sees no insuperable barrier to "a close co-operation between the medical and hospital facilities of the three services in this community, and, in turn, between them and civilian authorities.

"There seems no valid reason why the two excellent Victoria hospitals, with increased bed accommodation, should not solve this pressing problem and be well able to look after postwar needs," Dr. Baillie concluded.

Speaking for the Canadian Legion, of which he is chairman of the district council, R. Knight spoke highly of the committee's report.

"We need no more of these flimsy, temporary wartime structures," said Mr. Knight, "but we do need and must have an intelligent co-ordination of existing facilities and we need to have them well housed and able to serve efficiently over a period of years, which is exactly what Victoria must expect and prepare for because of the certainty of a large casualty list. Moreover, since many of these casualties will require hospitalization for years to come, we must be able to care for them within easy reach of their families.

"That much, at least, we owe the wounded men and their loved ones. The expense of visiting veterans now in the Shaughnessy Military Hospital is a financial imposition upon the families of injured fighting men, an injustice which need not be if we carry on with the plan outlined in the report which Mr. Ker has just made public in behalf of the committee."

Back Victoria Move For T.C.A. Service

VANCOUVER, June 15 (CP). — A motion of Alderman Archie Wills, of Victoria, urging the Board of Transport Commissioners to allow T.C.A. passenger traffic between Victoria and Vancouver appeared today to have the support of Vancouver aldermen.

"It sounds only reasonable to me," said Mayor J. W. Cornett. Several aldermen expressed the same view, but withheld definite statement until they have studied all aspects of the resolution, which will be presented to city council. T.C.A. traffic is now limited to through service.

Freighter Sinks Seven Minutes After Accident

WALLACEBURG, Ont., June 15 (CP). — The Canadian Mercantile Marine freighter, Superior No. 4, sank in the St. Clair River today, seven minutes after an accident witnesses said involved the W. D. Calverley Jr., owned by the Pioneer Steamship Company and controlled by the Hutchinson Line, of Cleveland, O. There was no loss of life.

Whether the vessels collided could not be ascertained from United States Coast Guard headquarters at Algonac, Mich., where the entire crew of the Canadian ship was taken after being removed by a coast guard cutter. However, some observers said the anchor chain of the 350-foot United States ship caught on the side of the Canadian vessel, tearing plates away. Grain was seen pouring from her and then she turned over on her side about 125 feet from the shore of Walpole Island on the Canadian side of the river.

Apparently the only damage the Calverley suffered was loss of her anchor. The 200-foot Canadian vessel could be plainly seen tonight lying about half out of water.

Lt. Garrard Tells Vivid Story of Atlantic Convoys

"The route is bitterly cold, with gales throughout most of the year, and when you leave the cold you run into submarines," said Lieut. W. A. B. Garrard, R.C.N.V.R., who was decorated for gallant conduct following the sinking of the Weyburn, during a vivid description of convoy duty in the Atlantic before the Kiwanis Club at their luncheon in the Empress Hotel yesterday.

"There is aerial protection for the first three days," he continued, "then a blank where the submarines operate for two or three days." They come in under cover of darkness, surface and make a quick getaway; out of a convoy of thirty or forty ships they count on sinking two and possibly three, said the lieutenant.

"The ships have orders not to alter their course under any circumstances, so one lone ship is detailed to pick up survivors after the rest of the convoy has gone on." He explained that it often took an hour or two to find the struggling men in the dark waters, and that in the intense cold of Atlantic waters few live for as long as two hours.

"Yet as soon as they land, the men are ready to sign on for another trip," he declared.

Lieutenant Garrard, who was on active convoy for some time in the Atlantic and later in the Mediterranean, gave graphic descriptions that held his audience from beginning to end of his address. He told them how his ship, which had been scheduled for the dangerous and murky Murmansk route, was suddenly ordered to the Mediterranean, where they ran from Gibraltar to a port 800 miles east, where bombing was intense and nerve-wracking.

After six months of continual harrying by Junkers and Heinkels, and merciless dive-bombers, the Weyburn was ordered home to England and it was then that she was crippled by a torpedo "that was evidently intended for a much larger ship than our 190-foot vessel," he related.

When their ship had sunk to the fifty-foot level, an accident caused by depth charges on board shattered her and almost sank the destroyer standing by to take off the men on the doomed corvette, said Lieutenant Garrard.

"We carried eighty depth charges of more than 300 pounds each, always set at 'safe.' Possibly the mechanism was upset by the torpedo's explosion, for they went off with a terrific detonation, breaking the legs of thirty-five seamen standing along the rail of the rescue ship."

This was the explosion that caused the death of Lieut.-Cmdr. Golby, of Victoria, commander of the Weyburn, and broke the ankles of Lieut. Philip Evans, Welsh surgeon aboard the destroyer, who later operated on Lieut. Garrard and the other wounded in spite of his own pain, Lieut. Garrard said.

He described the "magnificent work of the Royal Navy, whose services and heroism could never be fully told," and praised the gallantry of the Merchant Marine.

Colonel F. Brooke Stephenson thanked the speaker "for what you have told us and for what you have done," and went on to say that he wished a glimpse of what they had heard from the lieutenant's lips could be brought to the men responsible for strikes and lockouts.

De Gaulle also wants to get rid of officers too closely associated with France's defeat.

As for the Allies, they are planning fresh moves in the war, says The Times' Algiers correspondent, and it does not suit them to have too great an upheaval in Algeria just now, whether among French forces or in civil government.

Industrialists Meet Priorities Officer

Several local business and industrial firms presented their priority problems yesterday to E. A. Leslie, priorities officer, Vancouver, who will also be here today to continue discussions.

The main purpose of his visit is to explain Priority Orders Nos. 4 and 5, which concern identification of industrial concerns, and procedures for obtaining supplies. Yesterday afternoon he visited local industrial plants.

During his stay here Mr. Leslie's headquarters are at the Canadian Manufacturers' Association office, 640 Fort Street.

St. Lawrence Area on Guard Against Raiders

New Defence Organization Ready to Give Hot Reception to Enemy Submarines and Airplanes

A ST. LAWRENCE RIVER PORT, June 15 (CP).—Canada's newest defences organization — nicknamed "Les Guetteurs"—is showing its teeth for any undersea marauder that might again try to hide a prying periscope in the creamy cascades pushed against this rugged coast by a prankish sea. And they are prepared for the sky raider, too, should he try a token expedition.

Mobile travelers are sifted through barricades, street lamps carry deep shades, motor car headlights are mere slits and windows facing the sea are completely blacked out in a combined civil, military and police operation. A system of fast communications is ready to set in motion defensive action from land, sea and air.

"Gaspe now is as well protected as any part of Canada," Brig. Edmond Blais, officer commanding the military district embracing the Lower St. Lawrence, told a group of newsmen starting an inspection tour of the new defence system, announced in the House of Commons on June 8 by Prime Minister Mackenzie King. Then the brigadier smilingly gave the varied forces the name that may stick—"Les Guetteurs," which, freely translated, means the guerrilla coast watchers.

The Civilian Service Defence Organization has been formed as a preventive measure against U-boat raids that took a toll of a score of merchant ships in waters in this area last year. It ties in Civilian Aircraft Detection Corps, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Quebec Provincial Police, the Reserve and Active Armies, the navy, air force and Civilian Protection Committee (A.R.P.) units.

The senior co-ordinator of this big combination is youthful Sqdn. Ldr. Jean Paul Desloges of Hull, Que., former member of R.C.M.P., who bailed out of a blazing Spitfire in the Battle of Britain and was invalided home from his R.C.A.F. operational station. The "eyes and ears" of the Guetteurs are rugged Gaspe men and women, whose daily tasks of farming and fishing give them opportunities for checking aircraft movements and marine activity.

DRIFTWOOD MAY BE NEST OF GUNS

The military defences are carefully concealed. That pile of driftwood, for instance, probably isn't as innocent as it looks. From its twisted tangle the barrels of a half-dozen Bren guns may be pointing at you.

Hidden observation posts, connected with a unique system of communication resourcefully carried out by the use of twine and tin cans, direct the fire of camouflaged machine gun and anti-tank gun emplacements.

Newsmen in a motor convoy were told they were entering Canada's war zone when at Isle Verte, 130 miles below Quebec City, they passed a truck bearing blackout headlights. Every vehicle from then on was similarly treated.

A little further along, a steel-helmeted reservist, carrying a rifle and bayonet, signalled the convoy to stop for identification. His job is to be on the watch for spies and saboteurs who might land from prowling submarines.

At journey's end on the first day of the tour the party was given a boisterous reception by one of the first victims of the U-boat campaign in the St. Lawrence. He was "Buddy," now official mascot of a Rimouski military camp, who came barking and wagging his tail.

Buddy was adopted by Capt. Louis Larocque, chaplain of the camp, who received him from a Norwegian seaman rescued from one of the first ships torpedoed in the Gaspe area. The sailor was safely in a lifeboat when he heard the ship's dog barking. He went back to the sinking freighter, rescued Buddy and swam with him to the lifeboat.

Baron Burnham Dies in England

LONDON, June 15 (CP).—Baron Burnham died today at his home in Kintbury, Berkshire, and his son, Maj.-Gen. E. F. Lawson, inherited the title.

Lord Burnham was seventy-nine and the grandson of the founder of The Daily Telegraph. He succeeded to the barony upon the death of his brother in 1933.

Gen. Lawson is director of public relations at the War Office and was general manager of The Telegraph before the war.

J. A. Shanks Dies Of Heart Failure

Heart failure caused the sudden death yesterday of J. A. Shanks, former alderman of Victoria and owner of the Five Points Barber

THE LATE J. A. SHANKS

Shop, while he was shopping about 10 o'clock in the forenoon, according to Dr. F. M. Bryant, who was called immediately.

The body was taken to the Hayward's B.C. Funeral Co., who expect to announce funeral arrangements later today. Mr. Shanks is survived by his widow, at 1281 Fairfield Street.

Known as the Sage of Five Points, Mr. Shanks ran a barber shop in the Fairfield district for a number of years, and wrote stories and considerable poetry in his spare time. He had traveled extensively and been a ship's barber at several different times.

He was elcted alderman for the two-year term 1925-26 after several unsuccessful contests.

He took a great interest in "Ursus Kermodei," the white bear which was captured in the Far North, and was instrumental in finding a home for the animal in Beacon Hill Park.

Deadline for Second Transfer Order Passed

The last day of registration under Compulsory Order No. 2 was comparatively quiet yesterday, with about 150 men having reported to date. The number of men made available for transfer to war industry was less than expected, state officials of National Selective Service, but there may be a few laggards.

Students registering for Summer work make up the bulk of job-seekers streaming into the local office, they say, and these are being placed as rapidly as they come in. The response of personnel willing to engage in temporary work is gratifying to the local Selective Service officials, but so far few teachers have signified their intention of working.

Fire Does $20,000 Damage to Mainland R.C.A.F. Barracks

VANCOUVER, June 15 (CP).—Damage estimated at $20,000 was caused today when fire broke out in the Royal Canadian Air Force Barracks here. The blaze started in the officers' mess and actual fire loss was confined to the roof and the upper, or third, floor, but water caused much damage to lower floors.

Dozens of air force ranks swarmed through the lower stories while the fire was raging, removing furniture and personal effects of the officers billeted in the mess. Cause of the fire was not determined.

The building, formerly the home of Col. Victor Spencer, Vancouver departmental store head, was taken over by the R.C.A.F. in 1939. It was one of the show places of Vancouver.

Hold Closing Ceremonies At Oak Bay High School

CLOSING day ceremonies were held at Oak Bay High School yesterday afternoon when a large attendance of parents and friends gathered to see the students receive diplomas and prizes at the hands of Dr. S. J. Willis, deputy minister of education, and to hear the report of the school principal, D. H. Hartness, and addresses by Reeve W. L. Woodhouse and C. H. Rutherford, chairman of trustees.

Dr. Willis congratulated the graduating class on having successfully completed four years' work during "a very tragic period." He praised [illegible] faithfulness, and expressed a hope that many would enter Normal School and train for the teaching profession, which was in great need of trained personnel.

Telling them that the making of a new world would lie squarely on their shoulders, he said the report on the work of the school was most gratifying, and had undoubtedly meant a great deal of organization, good will on the part of the staff, and co-operation from all the students.

D. H. Hartness, principal, summarized the undertakings of the school during the past year and told the students that:

"As we look back to the marshaling of Canada's resources through the war years, we find a solid foundation for our faith in her present greatness, and, looking ahead, can see in mind the advances, both material and spiritual, that will spring from our present sacrifice, and that spell future opportunity for you. Such a vision may well be a spur for ambition and a guide in planning . . . and it is your part to be found ready."

SCHOOL ACTIVE IN WAR WORK

The Junior Red Cross had raised $200 for Britain's war nurseries, and a further $60 for China relief, in a school fair and class drives, he told the audience. Besides which they had conducted sewing groups, stamp collections and paper drives.

The War Savings Stamp committee had sold $940 worth of stamps, exclusive of war certificates and bonds, and salvage had been collected during the year, especially waste paper.

Speaking of sports activities, he stated that challenge cups this year had been won by Seniors R. Hetherington, Megan Scott and Ursula MacKenzie, while the junior cups had gone to D. Smith and Sheila Whittemore.

Forty boys and girls had earned their senior St. John Ambulance certificates, and four had qualified for a voucher.

The life-saving class had earned eight medallions and certificates, and an instructor's certificate had been given the leader. Oak Bay High School still holds the Beatty Swimming Trophy, said the principal.

Mr. Rutherford, chairman of the board of trustees, spoke of the merits of the principal and his staff, and said that the trustees fully appreciated the helpful advice Mr. Hartness had given.

The splendid work of the technical school and the fine display made by both boys and girls were edifying; the rifle range that had been set up was a fine improvement, he said, and good work was being done with the cadets.

NEED TO EMPHASIZE PHYSICAL TRAINING

The work done by the older students in connection with the civil protection of Oak Bay was praised by Reeve W. L. Woodhouse, who suggested that a director of physical education should be engaged, as such training was most important in building better citizens, who could become leaders not only in their own community but in the whole of Canada as well.

He assured the graduating class that in doing good for others, they would find their greatest happiness.

Archdeacon A. E. de L. Nunns praised the High School staff for their work with youth, noting that Oak Bay still kept its good name in spite of increasing delinquency throughout Canada. The school authorities were directing those in their care along the right paths, he said, and concluded by giving the advice of Bishop Montgomery, of Tasmania, to his sons:

"Whatever calling in life you choose, always put God first, and strive also to serve the Empire."

Former Victoria Businessman Dies At English Home

Word was received here yesterday of the death at West Worthing, Sussex, England, on Monday, of Cuyler Armstrong Holland, long associated with the financial, business and community interests of Victoria, particularly the British Columbia Land & Investment Agency Ltd., with which he was actively connected since 1889.

Mr. Holland was born October 6, 1863, at Port Elizabeth, South Africa, the son of John A. and Mary E. Holland. He was educated at Haileybury College and Cambridge, England. He came to British Columbia in 1886, being one of the first to travel from coast to coast over Canadian Pacific Railway lines.

On arrival at Victoria, Mr. Holland joined the original business of Allsopp and Mason, which was established here in 1863. The B.C. Land & Investment Agency Ltd. was incorporated in England under the Companies Act of 1862 to 1886 and was formed to take over, as from January 1, 1887, the business then operated by Allsopp and Mason. The board of directors consisted of several London, England, businessmen and Mr. Holland subsequently became the company's manager, retaining that post until he left Victoria in 1922. Since 1922 he had resided in London and more recently at West Worthing.

Mr. Holland was, for many years, the senior member of the Union Club here, and for seven years a director of the Provincial Royal Jubilee Hospital. Besides his widow he is survived by his eldest and youngest sons, Glen C. Holland, Victoria, and William A. C. Holland, of Gang Ranch, B.C. Mrs. Sylvia Holland, widow of his son Frank, resides at Burbank, Cal.

THERE'S ADVENTURE IN THE WORDS...

"For Service Anywhere"

From East . . . West . . . North . . . South . . . the war calls women to adventure — to a stirring part in the world struggle, beside which even the life of our pioneer mothers must seem drab.

They worked, those women . . . they faced danger . . . they even shouldered muskets — but theirs was a world bound to their own hearthsides.

The world has changed for women. A new picture is painted in dashing colours . . . in navy blue . . . air force blue . . . khaki. It is a world of change, of new places . . . new experiences . . . new friendships . . . new responsibilities. That is the world of our women's forces today . . . ready for service anywhere!

Canada must use all her human resources. Today the call rings out for women. They are needed in the women's forces . . . NOW! . . . So our men can fight.

Old Subscriber Dies at Age of Ninety-Six Years

The Colonist has lost one of its oldest and most faithful readers by the death yesterday of Mrs. Elizabeth Ann Simpkins, who, in her ninety-seventh year, passed peacefully away at her home, 3420 Cadboro Bay Road. Mrs. Simpkins has been a constant subscriber to The Colonist since 1887.

Born in Aston Tirrold, England, Mrs. Simpkins came to Victoria in 1887 with her husband, the late William Simpkins, who predeceased his wife in 1900. He was a partner in a well-known tailoring business, Campbell & Simpkins, Government Street, a firm familiar to Victoria's old-timers.

Surviving Mrs. Simpkins are her only daughter, Mrs. C. E. Heard, of Vancouver, who is at present in Victoria, and also residing in this city are grandchildren, Mrs. Kathleen Forrest, Victorian Order of Nurses; Mr. Jack Jones and Mrs. Ray Vaio. There are two sisters, Mrs. J. R. Campbell and Mrs. Emily Davis, of St. Thomas, Ont.; several grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and one great-great-grandchild.

For the past fifty years Mrs. Simpkins has made her home at 3420 Cadboro Bay Road, and always took a great interest in her home and garden. Only last Wednesday she was actively occupied in selling the pear crop from a large fruit tree in her garden, and for the past five years she has taken a keen interest in a new poultry strain, crossing White Wyandottes with Barnevelders. All her life she has been a poultry fancier.

Three days ago she entered a coma and the end came very gently, according to her grandson, who said that until then she had been in good health.

The funeral will take place from Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel tomorrow at 2.15 p.m. Interment will be made in the family plot in Ross Bay Cemetery.

A.R.P. Activities

Esquimalt.—Reeve Alex Lockley, chairman, Civilian Protection Committee, Esquimalt area, will present first aid, home nursing and gas certificates at a meeting to be held in Lampson Street School this evening at 8 o'clock. Mr. Edwardson, St. John Ambulance Brigade, will show A.R.P. moving pictures, and Lieut.-Gen. Ashton will give a short lecture.

WOMAN-POWER IN WAR

In measuring up what woman-power in this country is doing in the war it is of interest to note the example of Great Britain. While it does not seem possible to get the actual figures in either case enough is known to afford a comparison. There are, to begin with, in the British Isles, 2,500,000 married women doing full war service of one kind or another. There are, as well, 2,000,000 women "recruited for the auxiliary forces and industry from the 'unoccupied' classes and private domestic service." There are, too, over 600,000 women who, without compulsion, are engaged in part-time work, as much as five hours daily. In this country, so far, only some 25,000 women have joined the auxiliary war services and there are, though actual figures are lacking, only approximately 380,000, if that number, engaged in war industries. In commenting on woman-power in war The Times, London, says:

"Of the efficiency and indispensability of women in industry there is no doubt. Many are keen to increase their skill, and just as in the auxiliary forces they are qualifying for the technical services, for anti-aircraft gun batteries, and the balloon barrage service, so also in industry, by experience and training, they are acquiring the ability to do more highly specialized work. It is a remarkable fact that four out of ten of the workers in the aircraft industry are women. Women have taken the places of men over a large part of the industrial field and made it possible to create and maintain a great mechanized army by liberating technicians from industry to man and keep in service the machines of the air, the sea and the land. Mr. Bevin's new order (the Minister of Labor has taken power to direct women into part-time employment) will again increase the range of occupational openings for women."

Here, in this country, considerable difficulty is being experienced in getting sufficient recruits for the auxiliary services of the Navy, Army and Air Force. At first there was a most laudable desire to volunteer but it has slackened and the reasons are not easy to determine. It is possible a new impetus would be given to women's desire to serve in such capacities were more of those recruited sent overseas where they would feel that they are doing real war service. So far only comparatively few of those in the auxiliary services are serving overseas, and there are hundreds, if not thousands, sufficiently trained for such work and they are needed in England in particular as an auxiliary service to the Canadian Corps there and will be needed more than ever when that corps goes into action.

In industry having to do with wartime production more and more women are being engaged all the time and also in peacetime occupations to replace men, but there has been no settled policy in this respect. The Selective Service scheme in Canada has been painfully slow in getting into action. It is, as a matter of fact, only beginning to function and, as yet, in a very partial way. The summons to the women of Great Britain was answered whole-heartedly; the same cannot be said of Canada. Action here, in every respect, was belated and still is half-baked. It was late in the day when the summons went out for volunteers for the auxiliary services, and for a long time the impression prevailed that women were not wanted for such work. Now that the need is great that impression has not been removed, and consequently recruiting is only of the spasmodic variety. What women who don uniforms want is the chance to serve where their service will be most effective. They are not persuaded that this is the case where their work has to do with home defence, and where, upon many occasions, there is laxity in directing their activities.

AN INTERNATIONAL BANK

The efforts made by the Americans to restore prosperity twenty years ago by raising their customs tariff to higher levels failed because by so doing they destroyed their own foreign trade. The process was simplicity itself. The United States had become one of the great creditor nations of the world. Debtor countries, whose gold was exhausted, could have met their obligations with goods, but the high American tariff effectively prevented them from settling their obligations in this way. They could not induce the Americans to accept goods for debts already contracted. Nor were they permitted to make new purchases on an exchange-of-goods basis. In the circumstances it was not surprising that about forty countries resolved in self-defence to set up high tariff barriers against American goods. The consequence was that the export of American goods fell to the lowest level in twenty-five years. American factories and warehouses were piled high with goods which could not be sold. Workmen were laid off, unemployment on a great scale resulted, and the "depression" began with a vengeance.

Since that time many American economists and business men have seen the error of their ways and now advocate freer trade all round. Some Americans, forgetting their own economic misdeeds, go as far as to reproach other nations for their hardness of heart in the matter of tariffs. This new attitude gives promise that international trade will be carried on upon a better system when the war is over.

Two plans have lately been put forward, one at London, the other at Washington, for the stabilization of currency and the promotion of trade. It is easy enough to carry on trade between one man and another through the medium of a local bank without the aid of legal tender currency. It should be equally easy for one country to make a payment to another country, or a citizen of one country to a citizen of another country. What seems to be wanted is an international clearing house, through which the central banks of the several countries can do business in financing foreign trade.

So far, so good. It may take some time, however, to arrange details. If the proposed international bank is to start with a certain amount of capital, how will the quota of shareholding be fixed? Will this quota determine each country's voting power in the management of the funds of the bank and the amount of credit it would be entitled to from the bank's funds? These are important considerations, but there seems to be no reason why agreement should prove too difficult. Certainly no one wishes that there should be any more experiments in depreciating currencies or in interfering with the natural currents of trade by the device of high tariffs.

A C.C.F. GAIN

The election of a Co-operative Commonwealth Federation candidate at the Revelstoke by-election, conceded yesterday, gives that party sixteen members in the Twentieth Legislature, compared with a Coalition bloc of thirty. Two Independents, one Liberal and the other Labor, fill the balance of the forty-eight seats in the House. Although it does not materially affect the relative standing of the administration and its combined opposition, the result is the second straight victory for the C.C.F. at the expense of Coalition candidates at by-elections. The first was some months ago at Salmon Arm. These gains have been from both Liberal and Conservative ridings.

At Revelstoke, Mr. Vincent Segur, C.C.F. nominee, yesterday had a lead of sixty-five ballots in 2,021 cast at seventeen of the twenty polls, with three minor polls to hear from. At that time, Mr. Segur had been credited with 1,043 ballots, and his Coalition opponent, Mr. Joseph McKinnon, with 978. The three remaining polls were so small that it was conceded they could not affect the result, and the return of the C.C.F. candidate as member-elect for Revelstoke was generally acknowledged. It was a C.C.F. gain from a former Liberal riding, whereas at Salmon Arm a Conservative seat was surrendered.

Revelstoke, both through the late Mr. Harry Johnston, whose death occasioned the by-election, and before that through Dr. W. H. Sutherland, had been an acknowledged Liberal seat for many years. Its defection now, even though under the wartime fusion of main-line parties, is not without significance. On the other hand, by-elections in wartime are not of themselves such rigid criteria as the C.C.F. may argue, and genuinely suppose. What is probably closer to the facts is that the C.C.F. worked hard for the seat, and that their organization was better than that of newly created fusion. At the same time, as a test of popular support the result, even by so slender a margin, cannot be gainsaid.

COL. C. A. HOLLAND

The death at West Worthing, Sussex, on Monday, of Colonel C. A. Holland removes a pioneer figure in the early business development of this city and province. For thirty-two years Col. Holland was actively associated with Victoria, and one of its prime movers in real estate, investment and allied fields. As manager of the B.C. Land & Investment Agency, Ltd., from 1890 to 1922, when he retired and returned to England, he was known to a wide circle of acquaintances both here and on the Mainland.

Born at Port Elizabeth, South Africa, in 1863, Cuyler Armstrong Holland was educated in England at Haileybury and Cambridge, taking his B.A. degree at Trinity Hall in 1884. He came West to Victoria first in 1886 as one of the first through passengers across the then new transcontinental railroad. Four years later he returned to take charge of the firm with which he was so long and so ably identified. A member of the board of directors of the Jubilee Hospital for seven years, and a senior member of the Union Club for most of the period, Col. Holland died at the age of eighty years.

He is survived by his widow, and his eldest son, Mr. Glen C. Holland, also of the B.C. Land & Investment Agency, Ltd., and another son, Mr. A. C. Holland, resident in the Interior. On his retirement from active business in 1922, Col. Holland went to London, England, moving within the last few years to West Worthing, Sussex, where his death was recorded on Monday. To the bereaved this paper wishes to extend its sincere sympathies in the loss of a sterling figure, and one who served this city and British Columbia well.

A NOVELIST OF THE NINETIES

There are many still living who recall the popular success achieved by "The Heavenly Twins," by Sarah Grand. The authoress has just died at the age of eighty-eight and her death brings to mind her notoriety as the exponent of the "new" or "revolting woman" in her best-known work. It was not wholly a new theme, for the writings of Ouida, Rhoda Broughton and others had sought to shock their readers in order to amuse them. With Sarah Grand (Mrs. M'Fall), however, the desire was to shock readers in order to improve them. She is credited with having "struck new ground in English fiction" because of the methods employed to point to a strong ethical purpose. Now-a-days her books would probably arouse but little interest because of the wave of amorality in so many works of fiction, but in the nineties they aroused, and particularly "The Heavenly Twins," a chorus of disapproval which, however, did not prevent their wide circulation. This, in the case of her best-known work, led to its reprinting six times in 1893. Sarah Grand also wrote "Our Manifold Nature," "The Beth Book," "Winged Victory" and "Variety."

Mr. H. Winch, the leader of the C.C.F. Party in British Columbia, says: "Governments will do well to heed the Revelstoke vote and immediately adopt real total war policies for the achieving of military victory." He agrees, presumably, with the policy of his Federal colleagues who have declared that "Canada should be prepared to defend her own shores, but her assistance overseas should be limited to economic aid and must not include conscription of man-power or the sending of any expeditionary force." Total war is not possible without fighting. Mr. Winch should explain.

GREATNESS OF HEART

Thus, from a combination of causes, the whole force and energy of the age was directed towards the sea. The wide excitement, and the greatness of the interests at stake, raised even common men above themselves; and people who in ordinary times would have been no more than mere seamen, or mere money-making merchants, appear before us with a largeness and greatness of heart and mind in which their duties to God and their country are alike clearly and broadly seen and felt to be paramount to every other.—J. A. Froude: "England's Forgotten Worthies."

There is
One great society alone on earth:
The noble living and the noble dead.
—William Wordsworth.

Note and Comment

By SANDHAM GRAVES

It is an extraordinary belief, and not to be proved by the general evidence of one's senses today, but I am convinced the day will come when print will beat gunpowder. It has been in the past, and may yet be in the future, a very near thing; because gunpowder can blow libraries into cocked hats, and libraries take a deal of getting together again. But in the end—or rather within measurable human time—ideas will conquer; and these, I believe, will be the sane and constructive ideas of a thinking species, counter-balanced by the heart.

Printing, of course, is very old. It was known to the Chinese more years ago than there are any precise records. It has, doubtless, been "discovered" and lost many times. I like best that story of Johann Gutenberg, of Mainz, who in the middle of the fifteenth century sprang into prominence in connection with the use of letterpress type. The account may, or may not, be true. It is, at all events, a natural and a human one. It is said that Gutenberg was out for a Sunday walk with his children when the rain came on. They stopped, we are told, under a white birch tree for shelter. Passing the time away, Gutenberg carved one or two letters of the alphabet in birch bark for his youngest child. The child, or the man, gathered the pieces into a handkerchief, or other white cloth, to take them home. The rain soaked the cloth, and the letters printed themselves off on to the fabric. That is about how it might happen, too.

Since then, and indeed long before from hand-cut blocks, print has played a considerable part in human relations. Those relations have been for better or worse, as times varied; but ever, or so it seems, some progress was made, some of which at least was remembered. Many times, and for a variety of peculiar reasons, men have burnt books. Many times, and for as strange or even stranger reasons—almost totally incomprehensible today—men and women have written books. And so the ebb and flow of thought, of feeling, of fact or fancy, of myth, of anything that human beings are capable of conceiving, has gone on to this day.

One would have thought, if unacquainted with this planet and its circumstances, that mankind would have attained to a common language inside of, say, the last 500 years. Failure to do so has been a victory for gunpowder. One might have thought that gunpowder, given its head for the same period, would have made an end of print. But print has survived, and it is still in the ring. The explosions have grown vastly more violent than once they were. Print, likewise, has become tremendously powerful and far-reaching. Both, however, are a little like fire; a friend or a foe, according to their uses. It would seem that today we are learning that.

In terms of literacy this world is growing up, albeit slowly. Millions of men and women still can neither read nor write. Many millions more have not yet known the privilege of a library, and certainly not of a free, world library, where may be found the recorded thoughts of many generations of men and women and from many different lands. Gunpowder, on the other hand, announces itself, and in a language that is universal. So the contest has been somewhat uneven. None the less, I am betting on print, on movable letterpress type, to be precise. I think that Johann Gutenberg will be remembered long after most people from Mainz, Germany, have been forgotten.

Ottawa Considers War Savings Stamps—War savings stamps will, it is understood, be issued by the Government, although they may not be on sale for some time. Such stamps are issued in the United States, where they have proved a great success. The stamps are purchasable for smaller coins, and are then stuck in books. They are redeemable eventually at rates which return a profit to the purchaser. When the stamps are issued Canadians will have three methods of lending their money to the Government. There will be the coming war bonds in $50 and $100 units, war savings certificates in smaller amounts, and then the war stamps.

The lecture was one of the most interesting ever listened to in Victoria, and the views being especially good, those whose pleasure it was to attend were able to form a very fair conception of the wonders of the exposition.

Native Victorian Visits Home City

A. G. Hartman, Victoria born and former pupil of Central School, Victoria High School and Victoria College, is visiting for the first time in seventeen years the city from which he departed twenty-five years ago to pursue in the United States a career in law, which took him eventually to New York.

Finishing school in Victoria, Mr. Hartman served briefly in a local law office before entering the law school of the University of Washington, where he graduated. Taking a post-graduate course at Northwestern University, Chicago, he moved on to New York, where he was associated with the Title Guarantee & Trust Company and other financial houses for a time before engaging in the administration of personal and family affairs.

A son of one of Victoria's pioneer dentists, Mr. Hartman is a brother of Dr. Leroy Hartman, discoverer of a tooth desensitizer on which Dr. Hartman had worked unceasingly during the twenty years in which he was a member of the faculty of Columbia University. The Hartman formula is now widely employed throughout this continent and abroad.

A sister, Mrs. Bertram H. Harris, of Chicago, sang in the Metropolitan Opera. Mrs. Hartman, mother of the family, now eighty years of age, resides in New York.

Mr. A. G. Hartman's birthplace, a house on Yates Street, near Cook, and a later residence at 1009 Cook Street, still stand. Remaining in Victoria for just a short time, Mr. Hartman is visiting a number of old-time Victoria friends and classmates.

Raid Nazi Targets

sen," in the night attack and asserted twenty of the raiders were shot down.

The R.A.F. reported loss of eighteen planes in the night sweeps and said the intruder patrols downed two Nazi craft.

The R.C.A.F. heavyweights were idle but scores of Canadians went to Oberhausen with the R.A.F. and reported two outstanding facts: (1) The city was hit hard by blockbuster bombs and great fires were set by incendiaries; (2) German anti-aircraft fire in the vicinity of the target was heavy; some returning airmen said they had not seen heavier.

Oberhausen is a strategic city in German communications, standing at the junction of railways to Duisburg, Dortmund and Hamm. It lies three miles west of Essen and has a population of 110,000.

The R.A.F. has reported raids twice before upon the city with its iron foundries, rolling mills, chemical works and railway shops. The Germans said it had been hit for the third time April 26, when the R.A.F. blasted at Duisburg.

Spitfires making the dawn raid over France pounced upon two flights of fifteen Focke-Wulf 190's, downing three of them.

HIT TARGETS NEAR DIEPPE

An Air Ministry communique on Tuesday night said fighters and fighter-bombers lashed out at shipping off Cherbourg Peninsula and railway targets near Dieppe. Two R.A.F. planes were missing.

The Germans jabbed at London on Monday night, killing seven persons and wrecking a few houses.

In recent raids the Germans have been using "rattle bombs," small bombs nine inches long that resemble a baby's rattle and splinter into 100 pieces on explosion, sources here reported.

The Ministry of Home Security reported 584 persons were killed or missing and 733 injured severely in air raids on the United Kingdom in May, the highest number of the year.

In April the toll was 172 killed and 205 hurt, and in January, the previous high month this year, it was 328 killed and 507 injured.

The highest monthly tolls during Germany's heavy attacks on Britain were September, 1940, with 6,954 killed and 10,615 treated in hospital; October, 1940, with 6,334 killed and 8,695 sent to hospital; and April, 1941, with 6,065 killed and 6,926 severely injured. The lowest number of casualties during the 1940-41 offensive was February, 1941, when 789 were killed and 1,068 treated in hospitals.

Disputes involving stoppages of work in Britain and Northern Ireland during March numbered 192, compared with 100 the previous month. The aggregate working days lost was estimated at 122,000.

Junior Red Cross Group Sponsors Entertainment

The Victory V's, a Junior Red Cross group at Margaret Jenkins School, presented a final entertainment in aid of the Red Cross on Monday. Attractions included, besides a stage performance given in the auditorium, a white elephant stall and fish pond and rides in the grounds "on a real live pony." The enterprise realized the sum of $30.

Taking part in the concert were vocalists, June Cummings, Dolores Smith and Ann Kerr; dancers, Marilyn Balcom and Jean West. Piano accompaniments were played by Joyce Collard and Doreen Lusse, the latter also appearing as a soloist. A chorus, "The Army Air Corps," was sung by the girls.

The play, entitled "Madame Camelia's Beauty Parlor" was well received and caused roars of laughter at the ridiculous results of the beauty parlor preparations. Taking part were:

Madame Camelia, Maureen Bray; Mary Jane, her assistant, June Cummings; customers, Ora Chungranes, Dolores Smith, Joyce Collard, Ann Kerr, Judy Wilks, Ariel-Marie Jorre de St. Jorre and Beverley Knott; Pat McConigal, a policeman, Eberta Curry.

Immediately the stage performance was over the stalls began a brisk trade. June Cummings, Joan Hodge, Doreen Lusse, Lorna Latham and Joan Plaxton were kept busy selling articles from the "white elephant" stall and Jean West and Patsy Garrard could not hang parcels onto the fishing rods of the customers of the fish pond fast enough.

During the whole afternoon the pony was kept busy. He really earned his supper.

CENTENARY FUND

Sir,—At its March meeting the Victoria University Women's Club unanimously passed a resolution that a delegation from the club interview the City Council, urging that the centenary funds be used for some community project of lasting benefit to our citizens.

Accordingly, on April 6, a letter was sent to the council requesting an interview. A reply, dated April 14, stated that our communication had been referred to the centenary committee, with the request that our delegation be received by the committee on behalf of the city.

A month later, as no word had been received from the centenary committee, our president wrote to its chairman pointing out the delay, and again asked that a definite time be set for the interview.

After a lapse of ten days a reply was received from the secretary of the centenary committee stating that when the committee met we would be notified. To date, almost three weeks later, we have not been so notified.

Of the $20,000 comprising the centenary fund, $10,000 was taken directly from taxes paid by Victoria citizens, the other $10,000 being a grant from the Provincial Treasury, to which all the citizens of Greater Victoria contribute. Our club feels strongly that this large sum might well be used for some project of lasting value to our citizens, and that the Founding Fathers would be best honored in this way.

To this end, we had a constructive suggestion to make, but so far have been unable to obtain a hearing.

MISS JOYCE HARVEY,
Corresponding Secretary, University Women's Club.

SUGAR FOR CANNING

Sir,—Owing to insufficient sugar being made available for canning fruit many people have tried the use of a chemical preservative. The use of this method of canning fruit requires two things when the can or jar is opened. Firstly, it must be processed with heat before it can be eaten and, secondly, extra sugar must be provided to make the fruit palatable.

Many people, especially those in rural areas, have not sufficient sugar allowed by ration to provide the necessary extra sugar needed for such chemically preserved fruit, after taking care of their regular cooking and eating requirements. Also rural people are unable to supplement their sugar ration by buying cakes, cookies, cafe meals, extra cups of tea and coffee with sugar, etc., of which city residents can, and in very many instances do, avail themselves every day.

The use of sugar for preserving fruit is the old and reliable method. The sugar provides energy food so necessary for all workers and children. Also the fruit is ready for immediate use, without further processing, when opened.

When it comes to jam making sugar is essential. No chemical substitute can be used for this purpose. Jam forms a very valuable part of put-up lunches for field and factory workers and school children, as well as for regular use at home.

As a farmer's wife, with a family of five, who require a considerable amount of jam, I, in common with other farmers' wives, feel that sugar should be made available in sufficient quantities to enable all our surplus home-grown fruit to be utilized, before large quantities are made available for the manufacture of non-essential beverages.

We have recently heard a great deal about the sugar used for making wine. In order to enlighten us as to the facts possibly Mr. Herbert Anscomb, our British Columbia Minister of Public Works and manager of a local winery, would be glad to give us some authentic information on the tonnage of sugar his company is receiving for this year's wine production, and what percentage increase, or decrease, the quantity is in relation to the sugar they used last year.

SHOWER OF DIMES

Sir,—It is my pleasure on behalf of the Queen Alexandra Solarium Junior League, to thank all those who so kindly contributed to our fourth annual "April Shower of Dimes."

We are well aware of the numerous worthwhile causes which need our help, and we are very grateful to the splendid response to our appeal. Because of the wonderful support of our many friends in Victoria and all parts of British Columbia we have received $1,900 as compared to $1,292 last year.

So to the newspapers, radio stations, business firms, schools, clubs and individuals who so generously contributed, please accept our sincere thanks. Your generosity serves as a great inspiration towards the hope and future of these little patients at the Queen Alexandra Solarium.

Please accept our sincere appreciation and we feel your generosity will return to you a hundredfold.

WINNIE McEWEN,
Convener, "April Shower of Dimes" Committee, Solarium Junior League, 49 Linden Avenue, Victoria, B.C., June 10, 1943.

may, on reaching the age of fifty-nine, be employed for one year in a non-operational establishment, provided a vacancy exists. On attaining the age of sixty all officers will be retired."

It said that, if no other suitable officer is available, approval may be given for the continued employment for a maximum period of one year of an officer attaining the age of sixty, provided he was in the required medical category. Under certain "most exceptional circumstances," the period might be extended beyond one year.

All officers retired under the provisions of this new regulation will be granted leave pending retirement. Duration of leave will be based on the length of service by the officer in the present war.

The announcement said the recent retirement of Maj.-Gen. E. de B. Panet as district officer commanding Military District No. 4, Montreal, and of Maj.-Gen. W. H. P. Elkins as general officer commanding-in-chief Atlantic Command was due to the application of this rule. Both had attained the age of sixty.

RETIREMENTS ANNOUNCED

The retirements were announced last month. Gen. Panet has been succeeded by Maj.-Gen. E. J. Renaud, fifty-two, and Gen. Elkins by Maj.-Gen. L. F. Page, fifty-eight.

Unless an exception were made in his case, the new ruling means that Lt.-Gen. A. G. L. McNaughton, commander of the Canadian overseas army, cannot remain in command of the army after January 25, 1944, when he reaches the age of fifty-seven.

Maj.-Gen. P. J. Montague, senior officer at Canadian military headquarters in London, is sixty now. It was not immediately known whether he would be retired or whether he would be treated as an exception.

Lt.-Gen. H. D. G. Crerar, commander of a Canadian corps overseas, is fifty-five and thus has more than a year to go before reaching the retirement age. Lt.-Gen. E. W. Sansom, commander of another overseas corps, is fifty-two.

Oldest of the overseas divisional commanders is Maj.-Gen. F. F. Worthington, fifty-four.

The Archbishop of York has cut his income in half. In future he will receive £4,500 ($10,250) yearly, but the upkeep of his palace will come from the ecclesiastic commissioners, instead of from his own pocket.

The time used is Pacific Standard for the 120th Meridian west. It is counted from 0 to 24 hours, from midnight to midnight. The figures for height serve to distinguish high water from low water. Where blanks occur in the table, the tide rises or falls continuously during two successive tidal periods without turning.

To find the depth of water on the sill at the Esquimalt Drydock at any tide, add 30 feet to the height of high water as above given.

BUREAU OFFICIALS TO MEET

According to Culbertson

In the philosophy of many players, the worst catastrophe that can befall them is to have an opponent fulfill a doubled contract. Perhaps they regard this as a blot on their escutcheon. Whatever their reason, the fact remains that their philosophy is unsound. Consider this interesting case.

The bidding:

East	South	West	North
1 ♠	2 ♥	Double	Pass
2 ♠	3 ♠	4 ♠	Pass (!)
Pass	5 ♣	Pass	Pass
Double	Pass	Pass	Pass

South met a horrible fate at his five club contract. West shrewdly opened a trump, and declarer soon found that he could neither ruff a heart nor establish a single card in that suit. On winning the second trick with the heart king, West led another trump and South ended up by taking only his club tricks for a 900-point penalty.

As may be imagined, loud and bitter recriminations immediately broke out between the North and South players. North, who considered himself the innocent victim, denounced South's continued bidding in the strongest terms, pointing out that he had heard both of South's bids and still had refused to raise and that South, therefore, should have known that he would be in great trouble at the five level.

South, for his part, was even more vehement in his criticism of North's pass to the four spade. Among other things, he said, "You knew you had only one of my first suit and two of my second, and five of the opponents' suit. Holy smoke, couldn't you have warned me by doubling four spades? Did you think they could make overtricks at that contract?"

I must say that I am in sympathy with South's view. This is not to say that I endorse his five club bid, but I do appreciate that his distribution offered a natural trap. It is not easy to give up a 6-6-1 hand without quite a struggle. I am much more inclined to blame North for his ostrichlike pass over the four spade bid—and I say this in full recognition of the fact that four spades could not have been defeated. A player in North's position owes some duty to his partner, to warn him that it would be fatal to persist with either of his suits. Admittedly, North could not know that if he passed South would bid again, but the entire course of bidding was highly suggestive of that possibility, and in simple self-protection, if for no other reason, North should have hoisted storm signals. If the opponents redoubled and made their ten tricks it would be expensive, but first there was no assurance that they would redouble and second, there was no assurance that they could fulfill the contract. In any case, North-South would have been better off if South, by any means whatever, could have been headed off from bidding five clubs.

Vancouver Squadron Leader Has Record-Setting Habit

OTTAWA, June 15 (CP).—It's getting to be quite a habit for Sqdn. Ldr. E. F. J. Charles, D.F.C., of Lashburn, Sask., and Vancouver, to help in setting up records. A short time ago he shared with a Fighting French pilot the distinction of shooting down the 1,000th enemy aircraft to be destroyed by the fighter station at Biggin Hill in Kent, a few miles southeast of London.

Just over two years ago while serving as a flying officer in a Fighter Command Spitfire Squadron which had distinguished itself in the Battle of Britain, he helped raise his squadron's score to more than 100 enemy aircraft destroyed.

Air force headquarters recalled the incident in a press release today.

The score stood at ninety-nine when the commanding officer took seven of his pilots up on a practice "do" over a convoy off the south-east coast of England. Warned there were enemy aircraft about, the C.O. posted four Spitfires above the clouds and four below. In a few minutes, four ME-110 twin-engined fighters appeared.

ATTACKED TWO PLANES IN TURN

Charles attacked two in turn. He killed the gunner of the second and as the ME was crawling into a cloud layer he fired two more bursts and sent it spinning into the sea. The other was knocked down by the squadron commander, who thus raised his personal score to sixteen.

Charles himself knocked down six enemy aircraft that year—all of them with the exception of this one ME-110, on offensive operations over the Channel and Northern France.

Last year he helped to train new pilots at R.A.F. flying schools and returned to operations early this year. He joined his present squadron—the West Lancashire Auxiliary Squadron—as a flight commander and became squadron commander the following month. In five recent weeks he has shot down five Focke-Wulf 190's—including two on the day Biggin Hill reached its 1,000th—and damaged another on offensive operations.

ATTACKED FW-190 HEAD-ON

His first victory with his present squadron was in a fight over the mouth of the Somme when he attacked a Focke-Wulf 190 head-on.

"I opened fire at 300 yards," he told the intelligence officer when he got back, "and the F-W passed about twenty yards off my starboard wingtip. As I turned, I saw him stall and dive-down, flicking from one side to the other until he hit the sea."

Charles enlisted with the R.A.F. before the war. His father was a Royal Flying Corps pilot in the first Great War. The son still carries his father's wings with him when he goes into action.

Ore-Laden Ship Sinks After Crash

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich., June 15 (AP). — The ore-laden steamer George M. Humphreys, of the Kinsman Transit Company of Cleveland, was sunk in a collision with the Pittsburgh Steamship Company steamer D. M. Clemson in the Straits of Mackinac early today. There were no casualties.

The Humphreys, downbound for Lower Lake Michigan ports, rested in about sixty or seventy feet of water, a mile and a half off old Fort Mackinac Point, with eight to ten feet of her mast above water.

Her crew was taken off by the Canadian tug Laiten.

Extent of the Clemson's damage may be determined when she puts in at Mackinaw City. She was upbound light.

R.C.A.F. Casualties

The overseas section of the list also included the names of four men previously missing on active service and now reported prisoners of war of Germany; four previously reported missing on active service and now for official purposes presumed dead, and one previously reported missing believed killed on active service and now for official purposes presumed dead.

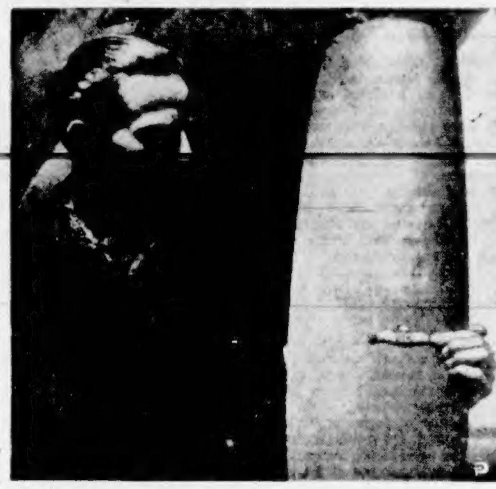
An Ace of the Air Force Overseas



SQUADRON Leader Jack Charles, of Lashburn, Sask., comes of a flying family. His father was in the Royal Flying Corps in the last war, and the son carries his father's R.F.C. wings on all his flights. Here he displays them against the propeller. Recently Squadron Leader Charles shared credit for the thousandth enemy aircraft destroyed by his fighter sector in Britain. He and a Free French pilot each shot down a German aircraft almost simultaneously, and it was impossible to discover who got the 999th and who got the thousandth. They shared a prize of approximately £300.

Knox Promises More Bad News For Japanese

Steady Increase in U.S. Submarines

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP).—The Navy Department promised today that more bad news for the Japanese would pile on top of the report that twelve more Japanese vessels have been sunk by United States submarines. Navy Secretary Frank Knox reported that the eight American submarines so far reported lost have been replaced "many times over."

His disclosure at a press conference followed Navy announcements yesterday that United States undersea rovers have sunk twelve more Japanese ships and damaged five for a total to date of 256 enemy vessels destroyed or damaged.

The submarines are carrying the brunt of the war in the Pacific, along with planes, and Knox was asked when the present "lull" in large scale combat would break up.

TAKES LONG TIME TO GET READY

"I can't tell you," he said, "except that it takes an awfully long while for any kind of sizable movement."

He said the increase in the American submarine fleet—which is known to be operating primarily in the Pacific—was attained as a steady growth rather than as any sudden building up of the force.

"We have added a small number every month, giving us a steady addition," Knox said.

Indicate Great Damage Done by Allied Bombers

LONDON, June 15 (CP).—A German war reporter in a Berlin radio broadcast gave an indication today of the tremendous damage wrought by Allied bombs in the Ruhr and Rhineland with these words:

"Even soldiers from the Eastern Front pass these towns in silence and bow to the unimaginable sufferings and sacrifices of these people," he said.

His report, recorded by The Associated Press, was labeled as coming from the Western German "Front."

STRINGS of cars loaded with munitions and raw materials . . . troop trains . . . freights carrying food and other essentials for the home front. They're a big part—but only a part!—of the job your railways are doing in this war.

Yes—although we, the Canadian railways, are carrying vastly more traffic than at any time in history, we are also building guns and tanks, ships and shells. Our machinery of production hums day and night. Implements of war roll from our plants in steady streams. They're made by the railways . . . hauled by the railways . . . the railways of Canada.

Only your railways, ready and capable of meeting the emergency before it occurred, can handle this double "must" . . . mass transportation and mass war production.

Your railways met a mighty challenge in Canada's period of construction. They are rendering dual service in War's period of destruction. They will be needed more than ever in the reconstruction period of peace. They will meet that challenge, too!

Now the Girls Of Fifty Have a C.W.A.C.'s Chance

VANCOUVER, June 15 (CP).—Pacific Command said today it had been advised from Ottawa that the age limit for volunteers for the Canadian Women's Army Corps had been advanced from forty-five to fifty years. Starting age of eighteen has not been altered.

Wren Advancement

In a recent article concerning Wrens a sentence appeared stating "to become a Wren a girl enlists as a probationary Wren and in a month becomes a full-fledged Wren, petty officer, chief petty officer and the commissioned ranks." This is not correct.

According to official word "a Wren progresses through the rank of leading Wren, petty officer and chief petty officer and must be advanced either in rank or in trades pay (which comes in three rates) by the end of six months. She can, however, be advanced, or promoted to a commissioned rank, at any time by recommendation and does not necessarily have to wait six months.

Elston, 838 Admirals Road, became the bride of Mr. Ernest Ray Rickinson, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Rickinson, Victoria. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a rose afternoon frock with a matching flower-trimmed hat, and carried a bouquet of white sweet peas and pink rosebuds. Attending her was her sister, Mrs. J. Stevens, in old-gold with a small dark brown velvet hat and veil, who carried an arm bouquet of rosebuds and violas. Mr. Thomas Rickinson supported his brother. Following a small reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rickinson left for a honeymoon at Shawnigan Lake, the bride wearing a brown costume with a corsage bouquet of gardenias. They will make their home in Victoria.

WILKES—BORISKA

At a most impressive ceremony in the Lady Chapel, Christ Church Cathedral on Wednesday evening, June 9, Very Rev. Dean S. H. Elliott solemnized the marriage between Emelia Marie, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Boriska, Vernon, B.C., and L.A.C. George Wesley Lincoln Wilkes, R.C.A.F., only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Wilkes, Toronto, Ont. Peonies and ferns made a lovely background. Mr. Stanley Bulley was at the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by Mr. F. Slocombe, Victoria, and was attractive in a street-length frock of blue crepe and lace with a matching hat and shoulder veil. She carried a bouquet of pink roses, white carnations and baby pink gladioli. Miss Lilian LeCocq, the pretty bridesmaid, was in pale yellow crepe with navy and yellow accessories, and carried a bouquet of blue delphiniums and white snapdragons. L.A.C. Frank Harrison, R.C.A.F., was groomsman, and acting as ushers were A.C. Eric Barber, R.C.A.F., and Mr. Raymond Hollins.

L.A.C. and Mrs. Wilkes have returned from a honeymoon in Vancouver and taken up residence in Victoria.

JESSEN—MAYELL

The marriage between Eileen Gracia, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mayell, 3054 Cedar Hill Road, and L.A.C. Christien Jessen, R.C.A.F., eldest son of Mrs. Meta Christina Bussman, and the late Mr. A. L. Jessen, Calgary, was celebrated by Rev. Hugh A. McLeod in First United Church on Tuesday evening, June 15, against a background of flowers. Mr. George Peaker played the wedding music.

A short-skirted frock of white sheer with a matching sweetheart hat and veil was worn by the bride, who was given away by her father. She carried a Colonial bouquet of sweetheart roses and white sweet peas. Miss Patricia Mayell was her sister's bridesmaid in a two-piece frock of navy and white figured crepe with white accessories, who carried a posy of Columbia roses, violas and sweet peas. Sgt. For a honeymoon on the Mainland the bride chose a brown tailored suit with a fur-trimmed topcoat and a corsage bouquet of Talisman roses. L.A.C. and Mrs. Jessen will make their home in Brentwood.

Mrs. C. Jasper Wins Victory Bond for Publisher's Slogan

Mrs. C. Jasper, 2424 Heron Street, Oak Bay, was the Victory Bond winner of a national coast-to-coast slogan contest conducted by the Grolier Society, publishers of the world-famous children's encyclopedia, The Book of Knowledge. Mrs. Jasper's winning slogan, "Every child should have access to the Book of Knowledge because v[illegible] education every door to su[illegible] closed," was chosen unanimou[illegible] by a distinguished board of judges. "I was really thrilled," said Mrs. Jasper yesterday in relating the arrival of the Victory Bond, accompanied by a congratulatory letter from the publishers. "I took a chance on it, and have never done anything like it before. I am just a housewife; you know—a homemaker. I just formulated the words, and I had one or two others, but I did not think they were the right ones. I'm glad I did send the right one!"

Godfather Marines Visit Princess

Princess Margriet sits calmly on the lap of her mother, Princess Juliana, as the two are surrounded by a group of Netherlands merchant marines who were the first of the many godfathers to the little princess to visit their godchild in Ottawa. On the birth of Princess Margriet, on January 19, 1943, it was announced that all officers of the Netherlands Merchant Marine were invited to be godfathers to the new princess.

Many Applicants Still On Housing Registry

DURING May 421 people including over 100 children were placed in family accommodation and 344 people were placed in rooms, Mrs. W. E. Rayfuse said in her report at a meeting of the Women's Regional Advisory Committee held yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. Paul Smith in the chair. At the present time there are 673 unfilled applications at the registry, over half of which are from families with children.

The shipyards have received instructions to step up their building programmes and many additional workers are being recruited for this purpose from other parts of the country, she said. Yesterday, five families arrived to work in the shipyards for whom no accommodation is available. They are in hotels now but must soon have some more convenient accommodation.

Fifty high school boys will shortly arrive to work in the shipyards and board and room or at least bed, breakfast and dinner accommodation is being sought for them. As they will be boys in their teens all rooms found for them will be inspected, as will all the accommodation offered during the recent compulsory registration.

Under the direction of Mrs. Dorothy Spurr a group of volunteer women will visit these homes. More volunteers are needed for this work, particularly in the following districts: Tolmie to Hillside, Douglas to Cook; Pandora to Haultain, Cook to Foul Bay Road; Blanshard to Wharf, Pandora to Humboldt; Pandora to Hollywood Crescent, St. Charles to Foul Bay Road; Lake Hill (Reynolds Road) south to North Dairy, Tattersal Drive; Dupplin Road to Kent Road, Parkdale district; Cloverdale to Lake Hill; Marigold district; Gorge district; north of Cedar Hill Crossroad. Anyone who will be willing to help is asked to call the registry, B.eacon 3117, Mrs. Rayfuse said.

Many bedrooms were offered during the compulsory registration and plans are under way to see if it is possible to establish community feeding centres in order that more people may take advantage of this accommodation.

After discussing a number of complaints received recently from people who wish to purchase meat in smaller quantities than is allowed for one coupon, the Women's Regional Advisory Committee decided to ask Ottawa to perforate coupons in future so that one-quarter or one-half of a coupon may be used. Members thought that even before the new books are issued it might be possible to use scissors to obtain the same result.

Mrs. Paul Smith reported on the organization of a subcommittee at Sidney. Mrs. William McCulloch is the chairman of this subcommittee, Mrs. C. C. Cochrane the secretary, and members are Mrs. F. P. King, Mrs. Dobson, Mrs. Cruickshanks, Mrs. T. Gurton, Mrs. Colpitts, Mrs. E. A. Bruce, Mrs. F. F. Forneri and Mrs. Ellis.

The matter of sugar for canning was discussed. Members felt that an educational campaign should be inaugurated to deter people who did not intend to do home canning from making application for such sugar. It was pointed out that the allotment to Canadians was much higher than that given in England or in the United States. It was hoped that next February some sugar might be available for marmalade.

Mrs. P. Rayment, convener of the jam-making for the Red Cross, asked that anyone having surplus fruit would send it to her for this purpose.

About forty-five applications have been received from women who would like to have a "remake clinic" started in Victoria. A committee, consisting of Mrs. H. S. Hurn, Mrs. H. L. Smith, Mrs. A. E. Phipps and Miss J. McLennaghen, was appointed to make arrangements for the opening of such a clinic.

Mrs. Paul Smith announced that Mr. R. M. Syer, retail trade consultant of the management service division, will hold a meeting open to all women in the Chamber of Commerce on July 9 at 2 p.m.

The importance of the new approved flour was emphasized. This was originally asked for by the Department of Health and each member was asked to advocate the increased use of this flour.

Women's Institutes

PARKSVILLE

At a meeting of Parksville W.I., with Mrs. Tryon, president, in the chair, plans were made for a garden party to be held in July, when an added attraction will be a baby show. Miss Alma McClure gave an interesting talk on rationing, and food for health. She also spoke on canning without sugar.

SOUTH SAANICH

An acknowledgment from the local ration board was received at a meeting of South Saanich W.I. in reply to a protest forwarded by members concerning the small amount of sugar allocated for canning purposes. A resolution expressing the members' dissatisfaction is being sent to Ottawa. Fruit, in season, will be sent to the Health Centre. On August 8 a basket picnic will be held at Island View Beach. Farmers' Institute has invited the members to the Experimental Farm on Thursday evening. Mrs. Bryce referred to the improvements and repairs carried out at the schools. Mrs. Paterson gave the treasurer's report. At the close of the meeting Mrs. A. Doney and Mrs. A. Farrell served refreshments, and Mrs. A. Sutherland and Mrs. Farrell were awarded prizes.

"How's the riding school going, old man?"

"Rotten! Pupils falling off every day."

Announcements to appear under this heading will be accepted at The Colonist Advertising Department. Minimum charge $1.50 for 10 lines, and 15c for each additional line.

The engagement is announced of Jean Muriel, youngest daughter of Mrs. Howell and the late Mr. R. D. Howell, of Borden Road, Lake Hill, to Gunner Frank Ireland, R.C.A., third son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Ireland, 550 David Street. The wedding will take place at St. Luke's Church on June 30, at 8 o'clock.

Smiling Lady of China Welcomed in Canada

Mme. Chiang Kai-Shek to Address Both Houses of Parliament Today

OTTAWA, June 15 (CP).—A slight, smiling lady of China, representing hundreds of millions who are allies of Canadians in fighting the Axis, today was given a Canadian welcome, Canadian sympathy for all who have suffered in the long Far Eastern war, and Canadian cash to serve where it would help most in China.

The glow of friendship marked the coming of Madame Chiang Kai-Shek, wife of the Chinese generalissimo, to Canada's capital.

TUMULTUOUS WELCOME

Ottawa residents said the welcome given Mme. Chiang at the Union Station came close to rivaling that accorded Prime Minister Churchill a year and a half ago.

When a gift of $10,000 from the Junior Red Cross was handed to Mme. Chiang later, as the contribution of school children to China's war orphans, she said:

"I will tell our orphans that when they grow up they will have to be worthy of the friendship you have shown them."

It was China's day in Ottawa. Cafes operated by Chinese closed for three hours in the middle of the day, when they are usually at their busiest. Girls in the costume of old China were at the station to welcome Madame Chiang.

This afternoon, at Government House where she is a guest, she received a total of $287,000 in gifts on behalf of the National Council of the Canadian Red Cross Society, the Junior Red Cross and the Chinese War Relief Fund.

Mme. Chiang, her nephew and secretary-general, L. K. K'ung, and Dr. Liu Shih-Shun, Chinese minister to Canada, had tea with the Prime Minister, at Laurier House during the afternoon.

ADDRESSING HOUSES TODAY

Tomorrow, Mme. Chiang will address both Houses of Parliament in the House of Commons Chamber at 10 a.m. C.D.T. At 4:30 p.m. she will be present at a reception by Dr. Liu, and in the evening she will be the guest of the Prime Minister at a dinner given on behalf of the Government of Canada.

At the Government House ceremony this afternoon, the $100,000 cheque from the Canadian Red Cross was presented by Jackson Dodds, of Montreal, chairman of the Dominion council. The amount represented but one-fifth of the Red Cross Society's objective in the amount to be sent China this year.

Col. Fraser Hunter, of Toronto, representative of the Chinese War Relief Fund, said the fund's present contribution of $177,000 was also but a part of the organization's objective of hundreds of thousands of dollars to be sent to China.

The simple ceremony took place in the Chinese Room of Government House.

EXPRESSES APPRECIATION

"I wish to express my sincere appreciation on behalf of my people for your friendship and gift, but mostly for your deep sympathy in the Chinese people's sufferings," said Mme. Chiang. "We have had war brought not only to the shores but also to the heart of our country. Millions have been killed and many millions have died and suffered.

"But when we have gallant Allies like yourselves fighting with us and for us for our common cause, we realize that our sacrifices have not been in vain."

In representing the Red Cross' cheque, Mr. Dodds recalled that last year the Dominion Council of the Canadian Red Cross Society had voted $250,000 for "practical assistance" to China.

In Chungking, Canadian doctors had formed a branch of the Canadian Red Cross and had advised the Dominion Council as to the most effective way China could be helped in her sufferings, he said.

The money had been spent for the training of nurses and for rehabilitation work in Honan Province. The remainder of the sum had been spent for the purchase of drugs of all kinds flown into China from India.

The work had been so successful that the Dominion Council had decided to give $500,000 this year. The $100,000 cheque was an "initial contribution," Mr. Dodds added.

Cash donations and expenditures for the Red Cross Society amounted to $16,362, she reported. Articles donated included 52,088 knitted and 77,115 sewn.

Scalloped Kartoffel
In certain parts of Denmark they call it "KARTOFFEL". In any part of Canada we'd say "scalloped potato". But this "scalloped potato" recipe is different. Your family will like it. Incidentally, H.P.—that grand old English type sauce adds a wonderful flavour also to meats, fish, fowl, stews, salads and sandwiches. Get a bottle today and try this wartime "economy" dinner.
Slice 4 medium, pared potatoes and 1 peeled onion and arrange in alternate layers in a casserole. Add 1 tablespoon of H.P. Sauce to 2 cups of medium thick white sauce and pour over potatoes, making sure that the sauce mixes thoroughly through the vegetables. Sprinkle ½ cup of old, grated cheese on top and bake in a moderate oven 450 degrees for one hour.

It was reported that the recent rummage sale netted a total of $60. Mrs. T. Hammond, the director, turned in more than 19,000 stamps to be sent to England. Proceeds from the sale of these stamps will purchase hospital cots. Scrapbooks of Christmas cards were also turned in for the English children. On behalf of the chapter a gift was presented to Miss Joyce Finch for her mother, expressing the gratitude of the girls to Mrs. Finch for her outstanding assistance during the year. A letter was read from a recent chapter bride, Mrs. H. Bird, nee Robinson, who is now living in Calgary. The cultural programme, the last in the series of Substance for the Art of Life and entitled "The Beautiful," was taken by Mrs. T. Hammond and Miss Muriel Knight. Miss Knight outlined beauty in words, in action, in thought and as experience; illustrating with poems, word pictures and famous paintings. Mrs. Hammond pointed out the poignant beauty in the pictures of the four freedoms painted by Norman Rockwell—Freedom from Want, Freedom from Fear, Freedom of Speech and Freedom of Faith. The last meeting of the season will be a picnic supper held at the home of Miss Barbara Dawson on June 28.

Here's Helen O'Hara, all six feet four and a half inches of her, said to be the tallest beauty ever signed to a long-term movie contract, and every inch well worth looking at. She is a daughter of Henry Clive, noted illustrator.

Music Has Great Postwar Future Says Dr. Staton

Dr. Frederic J. Staton, who is in Victoria examining music students for the Associated Board of the Royal Schools of Music, said last night that "in England the children have studied more books and more music since war began than ever before." A letter from England just received by Dr. Staton states that all records were broken at the academy by the number of entries for the examinations this year.

One of the reasons put forth by Dr. Staton was that parents in the Old Country are most uneasy if their children are out at night because of blackouts and alarms, so that consequently there is more time spent at home for study.

Dr. Staton has traveled widely since the beginning of the war, having been in twenty-four countries. He was in New Zealand when war broke out and since then has visited India twice, Ceylon, Africa, Trinidad, Australia, the West Indies and Canada three times, to mention a few of his points of call when examining for the board. In the course of these journeys Dr. Staton meets many different types of candidate and can relate many interesting "examination room stories."

"There is a great future for music after the war," he continued, adding, "especially if the postwar plans we hear so much about come true. You know," he said, "more leisure and more money to enjoy it with—and so more time for music."

He spoke of the traveling concert parties in England, the famous symphony orchestras which play "in all sort of queer places, like music halls," to crowds of people. Towns of 30,000 inhabitants now have more opportunities to hear good music than ever before.

The students of the present day, he feels, augur well for the future, although in Canada the air stations have such an attraction for young people that should be practising that the teaching profession is becoming worried as well as parents. Dr. Staton was referring to towns in Southern Manitoba and Alberta, which until the air bases were in operation had never seen "such a galaxy of youth before."

The contemporary musicians of the day, he said, are in all sorts of queer jobs doing war work of some sort. Of the music being composed today he would not pass a final judgment, saying only it had the attraction of being written in wartime. So was Tschaikowsky's "Overture" to the War of 1812 and it is seldom heard now.

Dr. Staton concludes his work here tomorrow and is leaving for the north of the Island on Thursday. He has already visited the Okanagan and has yet to examine in Vancouver. For the duration Dr. Staton is in charge of the affairs of the Associated Board in Canada, with headquarters in Montreal.

He: "Yes dear, it puts me in mind of something, too. I can't think whether it's streaky bacon or a plate o' sliced tomatoes."

Eminent Pianist And Composer Is Visiting Victoria

The eminent Canadian composer and concert pianist Ernest Seitz, accompanied by Mrs. Seitz, are visiting Victoria [illegible]. Mr. Seitz is a member of the faculty of the Toronto Conservatory of Music and is conducting the current examinations for that body in Vancouver, Winnipeg, Edmonton and Calgary.

During his visit to this city he is looking into the business interests of the Underwood Elliott Fisher Typewriter Company, founded by his father, the late J. J. Seitz. His elder brother, Joseph L. Seitz, now president of the Underwood Company, was unable to get away at the present time owing to pressure of business, so Mr. Seitz is here in his stead.

Unlike many prominent contemporary musicians who have been attracted to Canada by the musical possibilities to be found here, Ernest Seitz is Canadian born and educated. He began playing the piano at the age of three and one-half years and first appeared in a public recital at the age of nine. It was when he had attained the age of twelve years that he composed the refrain of one of the best known songs ever written by a Canadian, "The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise."

As a performer Mr. Seitz is well known, his concert appearances having included the larger cities of Canada and the United States.

RADIO PLAYING VITAL PART

During the last ten years Mr. Seitz has given 330 broadcasts. He says that "radio is now playing the part artists had always hoped for. It had brought to the people a consciousness of the value of concerts. More and more use will be made of the radio in developing the deserving and splendid talent and opportunities will be opened up for the younger generation."

It is of interest to Victorians that a local girl, Miss Marjorie Lea, has been studying with Mr. Seitz in Toronto for some time and has been presented by him in a number of recitals during the past season. In his own words: "She is doing awfully well and has developed remarkably."

Mr. Seitz is also a notable public figure, being first vice-president of St. Michael's Club, Toronto hostel, Canada's outstanding war service institution and show place of its kind in the East.

Mr. and Mrs. Seitz are leaving for Vancouver on Thursday and during their stay here are guests at the Empress Hotel.

Dr. Humberto Diaz-Casanueva, first secretary of the Legation of Chile in Ottawa, and one of Chile's most prominent authors, will speak to the Victoria Rotary Club on June 24, it was announced yesterday by George I. Warren, managing secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Diaz-Casanueva, who is making a tour of all principal points in Canada, is now working on a book with Canada as its subject, and which will be published in Spanish and circulated through Latin America.

Mr. Warren has arranged his visit here and his address to the Rotary Club.

More than 17,000 bottles of dried blood have been provided by Yorkshire donors for use in British ships.

Mrs. W. Blair Is Elected Head of Oaklands P.-T.A.

The Oaklands School auditorium was the scene of a large gathering of members and friends when the P.-T.A. held the annual meeting and election of officers on Monday night. Alderman P. E. George performed the installation ceremonies. Mrs. W. Blair was re-elected president. Other officers are: Mrs. S. Anfield, vice-president; Mr. R. H. McInnes, honorary vice-president; Mrs. T. Luscombe, secretary; Miss Murray, Mr. E. Patterson, Mrs. A. Gordon, Mrs. G. Hughes, Mr. T. Inkpen, Mr. A. Jacobs and Mrs. T. Inkpen were elected to the executive committee. Mrs. W. Brown was appointed war efforts convener, and Mrs. W. Wright, radio convener.

Mrs. W. Blair gave her report and thanked the members for their cooperation during the year. The secretary-treasurer and various committees also submitted reports. Mrs. T. Luscombe and Mrs. W. Wright were elected delegates to the Victoria District Council; alternates, Mrs. W. Brown and Mrs. A. Gordon.

During the evening Mr. McInnes was presented with a substantial cheque, to be used for sports equipment. A final donation of bed linen for the hospital room was given by the war efforts group. It was requested that a letter be sent to the City Hall asking for the erection of a children's playground on Hillside Avenue, between Higgins and Cook Streets.

An outstanding display of children's art work was on view. This included tiny tots' playhouses, stuffed animals, drawings, paintings and clever woodwork. The older girls held a dress parade, ably conducted by Mrs. Hoskins.

Attendance prizes were awarded to Mrs. Gordon and Miss McLeod.

Refreshments were served by the social committee.

Red Cross Notes

LAKE HILL UNIT

The Lake Hill Unit of the Red Cross held a successful meeting on Monday afternoon, Mrs. W. B. Stockwood in the chair. It was announced that the telephone bridge had realized the sum of $19.75, and the hand-made lace tablecloth donated by Mrs. Thomas was won by Mrs. H. W. Dukie, of Duncan, realizing $75 for the work of the unit. The members are busily preparing for the garden tea to be held on July 7 at the home of Mrs. H. Tait, Union Road.

RED CROSS WORKERS

Owing to the premises, 1238 Government Street, being required as a naval recruiting office, the city unit has established temporary quarters at 1011 Langley Street. These will be open daily, 9:30 to noon, except on Saturdays. Junior Red Cross headquarters are temporarily at 802 Broughton Street. Arrangements are now being made to rent the old Angus Campbell store and it is hoped in the near future to establish this as central work and distributing room.

GORGE UNIT

The meeting of the Gorge Unit of the Red Cross will be held on Thursday in St. Martin's Parish Hall, Obed Avenue, at 2 o'clock.

SHIRLEY UNIT

The Shirley Red Cross Unit will hold a dance in the Shirley Hall on June 19.

At the Theatres

Random Harvest Opens at Atlas

M-G-M's "Random Harvest" will open today at the Atlas Theatre. Adapted from James Hilton's best-selling novel, it co-stars Ronald Colman and Greer Garson in a gripping story of a man, played by Colman, who, because of a brain injury during the first Great War, suffers from amnesia, and starts to carve his life anew with no memory of the past. He is befriended and inspired by an actress, played by Miss Garson, who later becomes his wife. Then an accident opens the mental door to his past, but closes that of his life with the woman he loves. How she succeeds in bringing back to him the memory of their love is a gripping, dramatic story filled with haunting romance. Philip Dorn, Susan Peters, Henry Travers, Reginald Owen and Bramwell Fletcher carry the supporting roles.

Amusements

On the Screen

Atlas—"Random Harvest," starring Greer Garson and Ronald Colman.

Cadet—Elizabeth Bergner and Randolph Scott in "Paris Calling."

Capitol—"The Moon Is Down," starring Sir Cedric Hardwicke and Dorris Bowdon.

Dominion—"Ravaged Earth," documentary film depicting Japanese atrocities.

Oak Bay and Plaza—George Formby in "Keep Fit."

Rio—Sonja Henie and John Payne in "Iceland."

York—"Commandos Strike at Dawn," starring Paul Muni and Anna Lee.

CAPITOL THEATRE Dorris Bowdon continues her screen career as Molly Morden, the tragic young bride in 20th Century-Fox's picturization of John Steinbeck's heart-stirring best seller, "The Moon Is Down," now at the Capitol Theatre. Miss Bowdon's last appearance was in "The Grapes of Wrath," another great Steinbeck best seller. In her latest screen role she shares honors with Sir Cedric Hardwicke, Henry Travers, Lee J. Cobb and Margaret Wycherly.

DOMINION THEATRE Mark L. Moody, an American, who spent twenty-three years in China, although an amateur in the taking of motion pictures, has compiled in "Ravaged Earth," now at the Dominion Theatre, a strong, propaganda-free condemnation of the Sons of Heaven at their murderous work. Yet, in spite of the incredible horror, which it faithfully and almost coldly presents, "Ravaged Earth" brings a message of hope for China and one of warning for people of the United Nations not to underestimate these enemies.

YORK THEATRE "Commandos Strike at Dawn," based upon Irwin Shaw's hard-hitting screen play and starring Paul Muni, will close tonight at the York Theatre. "Commandos Strike at Dawn" is the story of a Norwegian and his fight against Hitler's Nazis. The film culminates in a Commando raid on his enemy-occupied homeland, a raid which is led by the escaped patriot. The film includes in its supporting cast such well-known players as Anna Lee, Lillian Gish, Sir Cedric Hardwicke and Elisabeth Fraser.

OAK BAY AND PLAZA THEATRES "Keep Fit," starring George Formby, is the main feature on the bill at the Oak Bay and Plaza Theatres. The story depicts George's adventures as a barber's assistant with a flair for cutting chins and an unmerited reputation, on half-holidays, as a crack athlete. This reputation—and a sheepish love for the shop's pretty manicurist, lands George into a flock of side-splitting situations.

RIO THEATRE One of 20th Century-Fox's merriest musicals, "Iceland," will end tonight at the Rio Theatre. The film is highlighted with romance and comedy. Sonja Henie and John Payne are co-starred. Though Sonja is known for her skating prowess, her breathless twirls and spins in "Iceland" are said to surpass anything she has ever before attempted. Featured are Jack Oakie and Sammy Kaye and his orchestra.

CADET THEATRE Practically every French player in Hollywood was employed in scenes of Universal's "Paris Calling," which ends tonight at the Cadet Theatre and which stars the famed European star, Elizabeth Bergner. The story, which deals with Paris immediately after the invasion, used nearly a hundred "bit roles" in the telling. Randolph Scott, who co-stars, is seen as an American pilot with the R.A.F.

Choose Delegates To Island Meeting

A party of eight will leave Victoria at 10 a.m. today to attend the annual conference of the Associated Boards of Trade of Vancouver Island, to be held in Nanaimo at 2 p.m. The conference will be concluded tonight.

Representatives of the Chamber of Commerce will be J. V. Johnson, president; G. Hamilton Harman, vice-president; George I. Warren, managing secretary; Leslie Bing, E. D. Todd, E. N. Horsey and Capt. Norman Foster. W. O. Wallace, representing the Saanich Board of Trade, will accompany the party.

On his way to work, he stopped and turned against the wind to light his pipe.

He walked on, and soon, somewhat to his surprise, found he was home again.

"My!" he exclaimed, knocking out his pipe, "that was a quick shift!"

• The annual wage bill is now twice what it was in 1939. This is partly because of the increase in the amount of employment but also because the average hourly earnings of plant employees (cost of living bonus included) have increased 42.2% since the outbreak of the war.

• Income taxes today are more than 3,000% above 1939. But the company's 3,188 shareholders get the same dividends as at the start of the war.

• This record is typical of Canadian business enterprises engaged in war production.

Nazis Worried Over Losses of Their U-Boats

LONDON, June 15 (CP)—A Daily Sketch columnist wrote today that "the German Armaments Council" was threatening to stop raw material priority to submarine yards "unless the U-boat can be proved to be more effective."

The writer quoted "reports from German underground sources" and said:

"The German Armaments Council is seriously disturbed by the catastrophic U-boat losses due to new Allied weapons in recent months.

"Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz has been given a final three months to produce the results he promised, and is working out new tactics. Rear Admiral Gott now is in actual command and has put two new U-boat techniques—one a decoy and one an attack—into operation."

The Daily Express quoted Hitler's own newspaper, Voelkischer Beobachter, as admitting U-boat losses had increased during the past months. The report, via Stockholm, denied that losses exceeded construction.

"Construction is so elastic that it can quickly be adapted to the enemy's new defence methods," Voelkischer Beobachter was quoted as saying.

BOMBER COMING BACK

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—The flying fortress "Memphis Belle," which the United States Army says has been "hit by every type of anti-aircraft missile the Nazi had to offer," comes home from the war tomorrow with her original ten-man crew intact. The ship, first United States combat bomber to fly back from Europe, will be welcomed by ranking Army and R.A.F. officers.

New Post for Austin Taylor

OTTAWA, June 15 (CP)—Appointment of Austin C. Taylor, of Vancouver, as special representative on the West Coast of D. W. Ambridge, director-general of the naval shipbuilding department of the Munitions Department, was announced tonight.

What Today Means

GEMINI

If June 16 is your birthday, the best hours for you on this date are from 9 to 11 a.m., from 1 to 3 p.m., and from 7 to 9 p.m. The danger periods are from 7 to 9 a.m., from 5 to 7 p.m. and from 9 to 11 p.m.

Envy will be the underlying cause of most of today's unhappiness, so do not indulge in it. An uncontrollable desire to meddle in other people's affairs will result in many persons unintentionally distorting facts and involving not only themselves but others in a peck of trouble today. Be sure you refrain from "making a mountain out of a mole hill." It will be good judgment not to waste any time in wishful thinking when so much can be accomplished by constructive planning, especially if you have an accumulation of work that needs attention. It might be well to bear in mind that "familiarity breeds contempt," especially if you are dealing with an ignorant type of person whose tactlessness might lead to embarrassment. Married, engaged, and matrimonially-minded couples must guard today against permitting hope to go "glimmering through the dream of things that were," for if cherished desires are held steadfastly, there is apt to be concrete proof that constant faith reaps rich rewards.

If you are a woman and June 16 is your birthday your depth of understanding should enable you to arise to any emergency. When other people become flustered, the chances are you have the ability to remain calm and the happy faculty of being able to take charge of any situation in a most efficient manner. You probably believe that "diffused knowledge immortalizes itself," so constantly seek to add to your already large store of it. As a florist, confectioner, restaurant operator, business manager, actress, writer, instructress, or in some patriotic line of endeavor, you should win the admiration and respect of many people and find your income steadily increasing. There are many indications that you may be numbered among Cupid's favored proteges and that he intends for you to have a husband worthy of you.

The child born on June 16 generally possesses all the qualities any parent could desire, and it only requires parental aid for their unfoldment and development. A happy-go-lucky spirit is often responsible for Gemini children doing things in a rather reckless fashion, unless efforts are made for them to see that their sense of responsibility keeps apace with it and acts as a safety brake. A bright future can be anticipated for youngsters born under this zodiacal sign.

If you are a man and June 16 is your natal day you will prove yourself to be a very wise man if you will "let your conscience be your guide." Hard work, rather than luck, will probably be responsible for your success, especially if you engage in medical, legal, scientific, educational, theatrical, political, military, naval, aeronautical, or a specialized line of commercial work.

Glancing Over Sport—

By JOE DELAHUNTY

THE DAY'S ROUNDUP

[illegible] in the Royal Canadian Navy, is going to return to the lcoal pastures this evening when the sailors take on the Army at the Athletic Park. Ken has been pummeling the ball in the Mainland circuit for a healthy average and, if he can continue his heavy swat work here, he will be a big help to the boys in blue. In both dates so far this season the soldiers have beaten the Navy, so the law of averages may match up with the troops the third time to the post, but yours truly doesn't think so . . . The softball umpires had their say last night at that meeting in the Liberal headquarters and it must have been a lengthy debate, for, at this writing, and it is now 11:05, no word has leaked out of the hall. I imagine the umpires will stick together. Why should they let a few teams try to run the league and the fellows who call them behind the plate and on the bases also? After all, the umpires were handing out decisions long before the complaining teams were ever heard of and they will continue doing so, if everything goes right, long after they have drifted from the city. I will always maintain, no matter what division the teams are in, they have no earthly right to dictate to those in charge which umpires are going to handle the games. They never did it years ago when we had just as good, if not better clubs operating, so why should they do it today? In this case I will back the umpires against the clubs who are doing all the "kicking," and yours truly doesn't care who knows it.

ODDS AND ENDS

Although the date for the first "Rowboat Derby" at Brentwood Bay is still some distance off, fishermen have been putting in their bids for craft for the past week or more so they won't be left on the shore the day of the big event. So if you intend to compete get busy and have a boat put aside for your day's outing . . . Do you know that Count Fleet has earned $224,960 in purses against Whirlaway's all-time winnings of $560,911? Yet The Count is $27,000 ahead of Whirly's mark at a corresponding period . . . The big reason why Greg Rice, the ace United States miler and other distances, didn't enter New York's senior track and field meeting recently was a bad case of shin splints he picked up while training on concrete roads and a hard high school track. He is preparing to meet the famous Gunder Haegg, holder of seven world's records, in the near future . . . Here's some advice to hockey players coming from none other than Eddie Shore, one of the greatest defencemen in history: "Never skate bent over and looking up or the opposing defence will certainly crucify you." That was the main sentence taken from his lecture to a class in Brantford several days ago . . . The Florida Boxing Commission ordered the purses of Tony Galento and Herbie Katz held up after their recent brawl. The gag misfired, however, for Galento and his opponent, who lasted no longer than you could say "Hello," were paid off in advance. The dukes were left holding the bag . . . Baseball will pick up a cool $25,000 for the right to broadcast the All-Star game at Philadelphia the night of July 13 between the American and National Leagues . . . Racing on the Prairies will be resumed next Saturday when the second half of the Winnipeg programme gets under way for another fortnight. Some of the ponies will be heading for Vancouver before the 'Peg meet is halfway over, while others will stay, for the purses are much larger.

FROM HERE AND THERE

Brian Hunnings, a human dynamo a few years ago on the English Rugby and Canadian football fields when he was smashing his way to tries and touchdowns, captured the men's title at the Colwood golf course over the week-end. He took the decision from Jimmy Simpson who, when not driving the Nanaimo bus, is out sharpening up his game or taking part in a friendly match. However, it was left for Jimmy to end the reign of Alan Macey as champion. He did it the tough way, going to the sixth extra green before the big lefthander admitted defeat . . . Next Sunday the Colwood course is going to get another working over when seventy members tee off in the annual Graphic Arts tournament. Divots will be flying fast and thick all over the layout and, when the last one sails through the air, the boys will call it a hard day's work for a good majority of them play golf no more than two or three times a year . . . It's really too bad, but when a pitcher parades to the mound for the Eagles ball club he has to have a stout heart, bundles of courage and pray for the "breaks." The other night, Jack Diamond had the heart and courage, but "breaks" didn't came his way, his mates committing no less than eleven miscues. If Diamond had kept sparkling until midnight he would have still waited for a "break" to come his way . . . Ralph "Hunk" Henderson, who was a member of several Canadian basketball championship teams, suffered a broken leg in a German prison camp playing soccer and was in hospital for nine and a half months, according to reports reaching the city. "Hunk" played with Varsity along with Bardsley, Willoughby, Ross, Pringle, Wright and others the year the students boasted of one of their greatest machines. They whipped the Dominoes that season and won the national title without an argument.

Flyers and Navy Take Fixtures

Parent's Homer Gives R.C.A.F. 3-1 Win Over Army—Sailors Beat V.M.D.

HOW THEY STAND

	P.	W.	L.	Pts.
R.C.A.F.	7	4	3	8
Navy	7	4	3	8
Army	7	3	4	6
V.M.D.	7	3	4	6

Last night's scores:
Navy 5, V.M.D. 0.
R.C.A.F. 3, Army 1.

Tomorrow's games:
6:15—V.M.D. vs. R.C.A.F.
7:30—Navy vs. Army.

Royal Canadian Air Force and Royal Canadian Navy "big apple" nines climbed aboard the winning van last night at Royal Athletic Park at the expense of the Army and V.M.D., respectively.

Playing in the first game of the double bill, Flyers defeated the soldiers, 3-1, while the bluejackets, appearing against the shipbuilders in the afterpiece, chalked up a 5-0 victory. The wins gave the Flyers and Navy joint occupancy of first berth in the standings and left the soldiers and V.M.D. bracketed together in second place.

Parent's timely four-base wallop in the fifth inning, with one on, was the deciding blow in the Flyers' victory over the Army in a smart exhibition of the "big apple" pastime.

After two scoreless frames, Flyers pushed over a single run in the third inning. Army came back with the equalizer in the first half of the fifth, but the airmen sent two runners the distance in their half of the same canto. Jimmy Lowe singled and then Parent, better known as shortstop of the baseball club, rapped out a circuit blow.

Harry Braverman pitched again for the Flyers and only allowed three scattered base hits. His mates pounded out nine safeties from the slants of Sammy Kennedy, but the soldier hurler kept them well separated.

NAVY SOFTBALLERS BEAT SHIPBUILDERS

Setting up a 3-0 lead in the first frame before the V.M.D. lads were settled, Royal Canadian Navy softballers went on to chalk up a 5-0 victory over the shipbuilders in the second contest.

Manager Ed Ash's proteges were a little wobbly at the start and allowed the sailors to push across a trio of markers without a single base knock. They settled down, however, for the rest of the game and dished up some snappy ball.

"Porky" Hulme, playing shortstop for the bluejackets, clouted a circuit blow in the seventh with the bases empty.

Syd Stebbings heaved for the winners and yielded four hits, while Fred Billsborough, doing the mound chores for V.M.D., was nicked for five safeties.

Each of the clubs came up with a smart double killing.

HEAVY SCORING IN WOMEN'S FIXTURES

There was plenty of heavy scoring in the three women's league softball fixtures played last night, with Adverts, Unitys and Hudson's Bay registering victories.

Coach Wally Yeaman's Unitys trounced Spencers, 23-3, at Victoria West Park, with the home-run hitting of R. Kaltenbach and M. Bourke, and the fine pitching of May Medler being the features. Kaltenbach hit for the circuit twice, while Unitys' ace hurler had fourteen strikeouts to her credit.

Scoring in all but one frame of the eight-inning contest, Hudson's Bay defeated V.M.D., 33-14, in the evening's high-scoring fixture.

Bob Whyte's Adverts, co-holders with the Sports Club of first place in the league standings, kept their winning streak intact with a 23-9 win over Yarrows.

Cleveland Outfielder Has Eyes on Championship—Dahlgren in Front

CHICAGO, June 15 (AP).—The Cleveland Indians' outfielder, Oris Hockett, is out to make a new name for himself this year—"Batting champion of the American League."

When and if the current leader, Vernon Stephens, of St. Louis Browns, goes into the service, Hockett intends to be ready for the job as pace-maker.

Hockett has been stringing along behind Stephens most of the season, holding on around the .340 rung, which is his mar kup to today's action. Stephens held his average steady at .369 for the week to lead Hockett by twenty-nine points.

Hockett's nearest pursuer is teammate Roy Cullenbine, who is at .312. Next are Dick Wakefield, of Detroit, at .309, and Pinky Higgins, of Detroit, at .308.

The rest of the top ten are all under the .300 level. Johnny Lindell, of New York, is hitting .293; Roger Cramer, of Detroit, .282; George Case, of Washington, .280; Jojo White, of Philadelphia, .277, and Luke Appling, of Chicago White Sox, .276.

Wakefield has the most hits with sixty. Charley Keller, of New York, leads in home runs with eight.

The top pitcher is Milo Candini, of Washington, with five victories and no defeats. Hal Newhouser, of Detroit, continues to set the pace in striking out batters with fifty.

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP).—Babe Dahlgren, Philadelphia infielder, seems determined to retain the batting leadership of the National League until he is called into military service.

Dahlgren's batting average dropped from .367 to .359 during the last week. It left him just three points above Harry (Little Dixie) Walker, of the Cardinals.

Stan Musial, another Cardinal, drifted downward from .352 to .333 and fourth place, just two points back of Frank McCormick, of Cincinnati, who fattened his average from .325 to .335.

The other leading hitters in the senior circuit were Frank Gustine, Pittsburgh, .328; Billy Herman, Brooklyn, .326; Lonnie Frey, Cincinnati, .324; Stan Hack, Chicago, .318; Tommy Holmes, Boston, .317, and George Kurowski, St. Louis, .311.

McCormick led in total hits with thirty-two, one more than Musial.

Bobo Newsom, of Brooklyn, had the best pitching percentage with six victories and one defeat, a shade better than the 5-1 record of the Cardinals' Howie Pollet.

Cricket Today

Another mid-week cricket match will take place this afternoon at Beacon Hill at 2:30 o'clock when Spencers take on the Royal Air Force again. The local eleven will be as follows: Oakman, Baker, Nixon, Vale, Harper, Lethaby, Coleman, Sherman, Dyment, Shrimpton, Gardiner and Fletcher.

COX CRITICIZES FRICK

PHILADELPHIA, June 15 (AP).—William Cox, president of the Phillies, criticized today a ruling by Ford Frick, National League president, on a Phillies' protest of a game played in St. Louis June 5 and announced he would take an appeal to Baseball Commissioner K. M. Landis.

The game ended 1-0 in favor of the Cardinals after seven and one-half innings when a rain storm swept the field. Frick sustained Cox's protest that St. Louis made no effort to cover the diamond but ruled that the game should be continued from the point where it was stopped.

Cox described the ruling as "an outright straddling of the fence."

"The rule (number twenty-six) specifically states," he said, "that under such conditions the game should be declared forfeited."

Rice's Entry Not In Yet

American Miler Doubtful Starter

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP). — J. Gregory Rice, the other half of the heralded Rice-Gunder Haegg foot-racing duel, hasn't sent in his entry for Sunday's national A.A.U. track and field championships and he confesses a notable lack of enthusiasm about his impending clash with the swift Swede. But the chances are that he will be on hand to give Haegg some real opposition.

Rice explained today that his failure to fill out an entry blank was due to the fact that he hasn't received official permission to compete from his superior officer at the United States Maritime School at Kings Point, Long Island. He seemed confident, however, that it was merely a matter of waiting until a change of orders comes through official channels.

As for his chances of beating Haegg, whose best time for 5,000 metres is his world record of 13:58.2 as compared to Rice's 14:33.4, that's where Greg just can't get steamed up. He's in fine physical condition, he says, although he hasn't had much time for training. But he adds: "I don't have the enthusiasm I should have."

It was pointed out that Haegg might not be in top physical condition after a long voyage from Sweden on a tanker followed by only a short training period. Haegg suffered a slight cut on his knee today when he wound up a training session at Dartmouth by trying to make a four-foot high jump.

"His lack of training might even things up," Rice admitted, "but there's still thirty-five seconds between us and that's a lot to make up in a race."

At 2 p.m. the winners of above and 3, Mrs. Peddle, Lake Hill, vs. Mrs. Morrison, Victoria; 4, Mrs. Stewart, Burnside, vs. Mrs. McKeachie, Victoria; 5, Mrs. Wallace, Victoria West, vs. Mrs. Shotbolt, Victoria.

SAANICH TRACK MEET

The anual inner schools track and field meeting in the Saanich district will be staged on the grounds of Mount View High School on June 23, commencing at 1 o'clock. Pupils of Cedar Hill, Cloverdale, Tolmie, Tillicum, Craigflower and MacKenzie Avenue will take part in the events. Students of the outer schools, who cannot participate in this inter-school meet, will enjoy a picnic and programme of sports in the vicinity of their own schools the same afternoon.

"You gave $100 for that rug?" said Mr. Browne.

"Yes, dear," replied his wife.

"Now, look here, Mary, I'm going to put my foot down on this awful extravagance."

"I don't mind, George, so long as you wipe your feet first."

Shipbuilders to Meet Airmen in Final of Series

VICTORIA Machinery Depot footballers will be out in search of their sixth trophy of the season tomorrow evening at Macdonald Park when they go up against the Royal Air Force in the third and final match of the series for the Solarium Trophy. The kick-off is set for 6:30, and, no matter how the weatherman is behaving, a large turnout is expected at the James Bay enclosure. The Old Country airmen won the first game by a 5-2 score, but the shipbuilders just reversed the decision and the score last week to deadlock the series. This evening the elevens will be fielding their strongest possible teams and their one aim will be victory. As a trophy winner will definitely be named the president of the Solarium Junior League will be on hand to present the handsome trophy, which, by the way, was donated by Alderman John A. Worthington.

San Diego Wins 11-0

Trounces Seattle In Coast League

San Diego ran its shutout string to three straight by routing Seattle 11-0 in the opening game of their Pacific Coast League baseball series. The Padres rammed out fifteen hits off Jonas and Glenn Elliott, while Chet Johnson, former University of Washington chucker, held Seattle to seven.

San Francisco Seals took a three-run lead in the first inning and never headed, went on to defeat Hollywood 6-4. Southpaw Tom Seats got credit for his sixth pitching victory of the season without a defeat.

Los Angeles defeated Oakland 9-6 in a twilight game before a crowd of 2,500 fans. Each team used three pitchers, with the Oaks batting Red Lynn out of the box in the fourth inning and the Angels blasting Vince Dibiasi off the mound in the eighth.

Sacramento Senators trimmed the Portland Beavers 8-0 in a long-drawn-out twilight game. It was the inaugural of twilight baseball at Portland and it brought out a crowd of nearly 3,000.

Gumbert Allows Cincy Two Hits

Pitches Cardinals to Neat Victory—Yanks Explode to Beat Washington

NATIONAL LEAGUE

ST. LOUIS, June 15 (AP).—While Outfielder Harry Walker ran his hitting streak to twenty-two consecutive games, Lanky Harry Gumbert elbowed a two-hitter today as St. Louis Cardinals nipped the Cincinnati Reds, 3-1, in the only contest of a scheduled double bill.

His performance and the Cards' ability to score thrice on the four blows Bucky Walters allowed sent the Cards into a three-game edge over the second-place Brooklyn Dodgers.

Despite Walters' wildness the Cards couldn't score until the sixth—doing the job then on Marty Marion's double and two walks.

In the seventh Walker Cooper singled home both Harry Walker, who singled, and Garms, who walked.

Harry Walker's seventh-inning single sent him into a deadlock with teammates George Kurowski and Stan Musial for the league's consecutive hitting mark for the current season.

The postponed second game of the double-header will be played Thursday, an open date for both clubs.

Phils Capture Couple

PHILADELPHIA, June 15 (AP).—Outfielders Ron Northey and Coaker Triplett slugged the Phillies to a two-way victory over Boston Braves—6-4 and 2-1—before a ladies' day crowd of 6,679 today in the first swing-shift double-header in the major leagues.

The victories pushed the Phillies into fifth place in the National League standings, a game and a half ahead of the Braves whom they displaced.

Triplett clouted a homer and a three bagger in the opener, accounting for four runs.

Northey blasted homers in his first trip to bat in both games and accounted for all the scoring in the second. He doubled Danny Murtaugh home in the fifth inning of the second.

Giants Nose Out Dodgers

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP).—Ending a game that limped through two hours and fifty-five minutes, Joe Orengo pushed a run home with a single in the ninth inning today to give the Giants a 6-5 decision over Brooklyn Dodgers.

Orengo's hit, coming with two out, broke a tie that had lasted from the sixth inning.

The Giants piled up a 5-1 lead in the first five innings, largely on homers by Buster Maynard, Mel Ott and Bill Jurges, but the Brooklyns came to life with a three-run rally in the fifth and tied it up by tagging Van Lingle Mungo for a run in the sixth.

Giant Manager Mel Ott was chased out of the game by the umpires at the end of the sixth after being struck out by Rube Melton.

Novikoff Is the Goat

PITTSBURGH, June 15 (AP). — A four-run rally in the sixth inning today pulled Pittsburgh Pirates from behind, giving them a 4-2 victory over Chicago and a tie with Cincinnati for third place in the National League.

Lou Novikoff was the "goat" of the contest. He led off for Chicago in the second with a single but failed to touch second and was called out when Harry Lowrey drove a hard smash into right field. The play robbed Lowrey of a hit.

It was Rip Sewell's fourth straight triumph over Chicago and his seventh of the season, against two setbacks.

CHICAGO, June 15 (AP).—Vern Stephens, with a home run and a single, and Chet Laabs, with two doubles and a single, led St. Louis Browns to a 5-2 victory over Chicago White Sox before 19,052 fans here tonight.

Luke Appling tried a one-man reprisal against Steve Sundra, smashing out two doubles and a single in his first three trips to the plate.

Johnny Humphries was the victim of the Browns' thirteen-hit attack, which included five extra-base blows. Stephens' homer, his fifth of the season, came in the eighth after Laabs doubled.

Resign in Protest From School Board

Saanich Trustees To Meet Tonight

Saanich School Board will consider tonight the resignations of two trustees, J. R. L. Burridge and F. Tupman, who, in a joint public statement issued yesterday, accuse the board of failing to deal adequately with allegations concerning the conduct of a school in the district. Beyond the statement that it is "a large school," having fourteen teachers and about 380 pupils, neither the school nor any of its teaching personnel has yet been mentioned publicly.

The controversy, it is admitted freely on both sides, has been raging for some time. It has been investigated by the Department of Education and the department, it likewise is admitted, has reported back to the board, but the precise nature of that report is something no member of the board would discuss for publication prior to tonight's meeting.

The joint public statement of Trustees Burridge and Tupman declares:

"In view of the failure of the Board of School Trustees to take what we consider appropriate action to meet the situation disclosed in the report of the investigation ordered by the Department of Education at a Saanich school, we beg to hand in our resignations as school trustees.

"We cannot accept the responsibility of serving on a board which will not take what, in our opinion, are the necessary steps for the protection of the welfare of the children at that school."

Commenting last night upon the foregoing statement, Chairman Martin A. Neilsen said:

ADMITS DIFFERENCE OF OPINION

"Yes, there is a difference of opinion. Certain charges have been made. I, however, do not think it fair to the school, or to any person who may be involved, to discuss the affair until, at least, matters come to a head, if they do, at the meeting called to go into the whole business. It is unfair to the teachers and not conducive to discipline with respect to children when their parents take sides openly.

"This much I can say, namely, that the dissatisfaction expressed by Trustees Burridge and Tupman has been fully disclosed to the Department of Education, and that, in due course, the department has communicated with the board. As I read and understand the department, it does not contain a single instruction or recommendation. If, in the face of that communication, as I see it, the dissenting trustees wish to resign, that is, of course, their privilege."

The Department of Education had not been officially advised yesterday of the two resignations.

"We will deal with this matter when the department is officially advised of the resignations of these trustees and the reasons therefor," said Hon. H. G. T. Perry, Minister of Education, whose department is expected to be represented by School Inspector Gough at tonight's meeting of the Saanich board.

Should the resignations be accepted, the board will be left with three members, Martin A. Neilson, chairman; Mrs. E. M. Bryce and Mrs. F. Paterson. All three were elected on the C.C.F. ticket.

Ratepayers Urge Saanich Council To Abolish Wards

Want Plebiscite Held in September

An argument in favor of abolition of the ward system in Saanich was presented to the Saanich Municipal Council by a delegation from the Saanich Ratepayers' Association, but no action was taken in view of the

The association had entered a written request for a plebiscite on the question of abolishing ward boundaries, to be held in September, and followed it last night with the statement that most of the troubles in the municipality spring from the ward system.

"We are positive that more and better work would be done more cheaply if wards were abolished," A. Douglas, association president, told the council. "At present each councillor feels responsible for his own section, whereas, with no wards, he would consider the welfare of the municipality as a whole."

Failing to secure the co-operation of the council, the association intended to petition the ratepayers toward demanding a plebiscite, Mr. Douglas said. Mrs. F. Paterson agreed for Cloverdale ratepayers.

Councillors John Oliver and L. C. Hagan, of outer Wards Five and Six, respectively, agreed that the ward system was felt by the rural population to be their only protection, and gave support to the system of individual ward foremen who, they said, saved the municipality a considerable sum each year by their steady maintenance work on the roads. The road maintenance system had been criticized by F. Willmore and C. D. Atkinson, of the association, who felt it was inefficient and out-moded.

CLAIMS REPRESENTATION NOT PROPORTIONATE

Councillor K. W. Richmond, Ward Seven, complained that the six or seven thousand residents of his ward had no more representation than one-fifth that number in the outer wards. Councillor George A. Rudd, of Ward Two, said that his ward was getting more than its share of municipal benefits.

Councillor George Austin, who presided in the absence of the reeve, gave a condensed statement of the cost of administration o the association for its perusal, and Councillor Rudd informed the delegation that the council was carrying on in the best way possible during wartime, with a view to building after the war.

"We don't want to lay streets only to have to dig them up to install sewers," he said, "and the inner wards need sewers more than anything else."

In regard to a complaint from A. S. Powell of sewage on his property on Gorge Road West, W. W. Shorrock, sanitary inspector, reported the city engineer had refused a connection on the city sewer system, and that arrangements have been discussed to have the offending sewage carried over Mr Powell's property.

WILL AMEND TENT BY-LAW

A motion was carried that the tent by-law be amended to cover the whole municipality, instead of Wards One, Two and Seven, and any area within 500 feet of a park or waterfront.

R. Strong complained that a wire fence had been cut between his property and that of Mount View High School, apparently for A.R.P. purposes, with the result that his stock strayed and he was forced to pay $17.75 in pound fees. The matter will be turned over to the police, who collect the pound fees. Capt. E. D. W. Levien reported that he had no knowledge of the action, and that any such action was not conducted with his authority.

Army Buildings To Cost $89,000

Permits for construction of military buildings in Victoria area to cost $89,000 were issued at the City Hall yesterday.

Both lots of structures will stand for the duration of the war and one year after, according to terms of the permits.

Local A.R.P. Squads Give Demonstration At Sidney Raid Test

Victoria A.R.P. squads gave demonstrations of their work during a practice raid at Sidney on Monday evening, Inspector A. H. Bishop, A.R.P. controller, said yesterday. The test had been arranged by the Sidney civilian protection committee.

Proudfoot represented Inspector Bishop, and others attending were Staff Sgt. G. A. Johnson, of the Provincial Civilian Protection Committee; Dr. R. M. Petrie, Miss H. Butterfield, of the W.A.C., and Mrs. V. Nelson, representing the Canadian Auxiliary Territorial Service.

Issue Statement On By-Election

Commenting yesterday on the Revelstoke by-election on Monday, which resulted in Vincent Segur, C.C.F., defeating Joseph McKinnon, Liberal Coalition candidate, Premier John Hart and Attorney-General R. L. Maitland, issued the following statement on behalf of the Cabinet:

"The result of this election indicates clearly the extent to which the public of this province has been affected by the advancement and reiteration in many guises of the doctrine of Socialism.

"The outbreak of war was seized upon by the C.C.F. as its opportunity, and they have not failed to use it.

"They have been carrying on their political campaign day in and day out ever since; while the other parties, rightly or wrongly, have refrained from active political propaganda.

"Their policies and doctrines can only lead to a totalitarian state, and those who believe in maintaining our institutions must now be alive to the danger with which they are faced.

"The record of the Government was never in question.

"The issue was whether or not we should change from our present free system of Government to state control and ownership. The vote supported the advocates of state control.

"The result of this by-election should awaken the people to a realization of the fundamental issue and challenge regarding the future economy of the country."

Fine Is Imposed In Machine Case

Saanich Schools Ready to Close

With the Summer vacation less than two weeks away, Saanich pupils are engaged in writing examinations and finishing activities associated with the end of the school year, according to John Gough, municipal inspector of schools. Quite recently approximately 200 pupils in Grade VIII wrote tests issued by the inspector which, with other tests given throughout the year, will be used to determine promotions to the high schools.

Pupils in Grades IX, X and XI who are not being recommended for promotion on their year's work will write examinations early this week. University entrance examinations for Grade XII students will be conducted by E. Livesey, G. T. Greenwell and Miss G. Higham at Mount Douglas, Mount View and Mount Newton High Schools, respectively, commencing June 16.

Several vacancies will arise on the staffs of elementary and high schools at the end of the school year as a result of teachers leaving to join the armed forces, marrying and resigning, Mr. Gough said. C. Curtis, F. Rendle and R. Huddleston have been granted leave of absence for the remainder of the school year to attend Air Cadet instructors' camp at Calgary. Miss I. Worthington has been granted leave of absence, effective June 16, to join the W.R.C.N.S., and Miss H. McKinnon, of Tillicum School staff, will depart on June 24 to attend the Summer session of the University of California to study art and music.

Parents having children eligible to enter school next September are reminded that the children must be enrolled by June 16 through a visit to the nearest school, Mr. Gough said. Residents of the district formerly served by the Normal School and now served by Oaklands School should enroll their children by telephoning the school board office, B 3614. As a result of limited classroom accommodation, only children who will be six years of age on or before December 31 will be accepted.

Film City to Pay Fine of $500

Film City, Ltd., represented by J. S. Brandon, was fined $500 yesterday in city police court for trading in securities without a certificate of registration as a broker between November 10, 1942, and March 3, 1943. W. H. M. Haldane appeared for the Crown.

Magistrate Henry C. Hall said there were provisions whereby he could impose the penalty on the two company directors in default of payment by the company itself.

Evidence presented in court on June 10 by Mr. Haldane showed that Lionel Willan, 618 Scollard Building, and Patrick McCullough, 550 Georgia Street West, Vancouver, were directors of the company.

"Death cannot Divide."

Sadly missed by Bob and Gwen.

How It Started—

By JEAN NEWTON

"CARTHAGE MUST BE DESTROYED!"

What might be called the Fourth Punic War is over; the pennants of the second world war Allies are flying above Tunisia; the United Nations are running their ploughs over the ruins of this North African key to the Central Mediterranean, ... but will not, as the Romans did twenty-one centuries ago, sow its soil with salt.

In some places and to some people everything happens.

Tunisia, which is practically ancient Carthage, seems to have been destined for excitement and turbulence, one of its best-known incidents being its obliteration about 146 years before the birth of Christ.

Powerful, opulent and influential, Carthage had snubbed the Roman statesman Cato. Cato took the slight so deeply to heart that for the next eight or ten years, every time he addressed the Roman senate, he wound up with the exhortation "Delenda est Carthage! Carthage must be destroyed!"

Three years after Cato died, the vow to whose consummation he had dedicated his last years was fulfilled.

In the year 146 B.C. the Romans reduced Carthage to rubble; to say it was utterly destroyed is an understatement. Its body was riddled, dismembered, ground to bits and scattered to the winds; but the corpse wouldn't stay dead.

Because of its strategical importance, the Italians, Turks, Arabs, French, Spaniards, a motley assortment of pirates and latterly the Germans traveled its path of history for the next 2,000 years, but got nowhere; now that the British and Americans have moved in, Carthage will go places again.

New York Stocks

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP).—Selective recoveries seeped into the stock market today after three successive declining sessions.

Yesterday's tumble, sharpest since April 9, was extended at the opening by fractions to more than two points. Buyers then came in for rails and other recently depressed issues. Extreme setbacks were reduced or converted into fair-sized advances at the close. Dealings were fairly lively on the opening retreat and near the finish but in-between slow periods were plentiful.

Many customers continued to cash profits or stand aside to await the formation of new administrative anti-inflation battlelines and the shape of forthcoming corporate taxes. Some peace issues were aided by the good war news, but most never got far out in front and there was a disposition to step carefully here pending inauguration of the expected Allied offensive in Europe. Some bidding was attributed to the belief that Monday's relapse may have gone too far or, at least, put the list in a healthier technical position.

The Associated Press average of sixty stocks was up .1 of a point at 50.4. It dropped .9 in the previous session. Of 870 issues traded, 275 were up and 495 down or unchanged. Transfers of 1,010,440 shares compared with 1,351,100 the day before.

Improvement in the carriers was credited partly to the thought that the majority of the roads would enjoy heavy traffic for a long time after the ending of the world conflict. Encouraging also was the disclosure that April net operating income for 136 Class 1 lines aggregated $127,059,363, against $101,536,294 in a like 1942 month.

DIVIDEND DECLARED

Howe Sound, 75 cents, payable July 2 to shareholders of record June 15.

Seals have short necks and clawed flippers; sealions are long necked and with clawless flippers.

Local Wholesale Produce Market

A carload of California potatoes arrived yesterday in Victoria, and local ones are also coming on the market, though not in large quantities yet. However, it should ease the potato shortage, officials say.

Supplies of local peas are increasing daily, but the price remains high. Yesterday the last carload of California bunch carrots came in.

Gooseberries are not very plentiful this year, and anyone wishing to use them for jam should procure them without delay, for the season is well advanced, wholesalers state.

Prices on local strawberries have again been reduced, and are now near bottom. Growers do not expect prices to go below a rate of two baskets for thirty-five cents this year.

The first Washington cherries arrived yesterday, and a shipment of Santa Rosa plums, the first this season, is expected today; also some California apricots and watermelon.

There is no grapefruit available at present, but a shipment is expected tomorrow.

STORE BURNED

WHITEHORSE, Y.T., June 15 (CP).—Fire of unknown origin yesterday destroyed the general merchandise store block of Northern Commercial Company. Loss was estimated at $100,000.

Canadians in New York Are Well Treated

Sailor Says Can Not "Guzzle All Drinks"

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP).—Sailing orders Royal Canadian Navy heads know nothing about and military maps the brass hats never see guide Canadian servicemen as they hunt for entertainment in New York.

Passed from deck to deck and from vessel to vessel as fighting ships of the Royal Canadian Navy head into New York and its entertainment spots, these sailing orders are not up to the precise standards set by K.R. and A.I. (King's Regulations and Admiralty Instructions), but are just as effective.

MAPS SHOW ALL HOT SPOTS

The military maps are treasurd like furloughs as they show—with vivid descriptive language—how to get to every hot spot in town.

Usually the sailor will head from the waterfront to that spot where Broadway fattens out and becomes Times Square.

Even if no one has told him to go to any particular place, he can depend on his uniform with the "Canada" badge on the shoulder to get him around.

It's a certainty that before long someone will come along and accost him with, "A Canadian, eh?"—and the sailor is off.

In fact, the hospitality for Canadian servicemen here is so unlimited that one sailor, over a large glass of tomato juice, confided to a reporter he hoped he never came back.

"There isn't a sailor in the fleet," he explained "who can guzzle all the drinks these Americans want to buy you—and live."

Slowdown at Prince Rupert Yards Ended

PRINCE RUPERT, B.C., June 15 (CP).—Ship production returned to normal at Prince Rupert Drydock tonight as 1,300 workers ended a twenty-four-hour slowdown, pending further negotiations on their demands for an improvement in the food at the shipyard commissary.

R. Harrison, a representative of the Boilermakers and Iron Shipbuilders' Union (C.C.L.) told a mass meeting, which voted to resume eight-hour shifts, that the slowdown would be repeated within two weeks is conditions were not rectified.

Spokesmen for the boilermakers and other unions told the meeting W. R. Devenish, general manager of Western lines, Canadian National Railways, would attempt to negotiate a solution with the authorities involved.

The slowdown was achieved by each shift working four hours instead of eight through the twenty-four-hour period.

POTATO HARVEST

TIMMINS, Ont., June 15 (CP).—Several Timmins residents personally ended their potato shortage the other day when a freight car, loaded with potatoes, was spotted on a siding with the door wide open. The free market was closed by a policeman, but not before several "customers" had been satisfied.

Seamen From Missing Ships Are Prisoners

LONDON, June 15 (CP).—Here's another sea mystery which will have to await the end of the war for a true explanation:

Early in 1942 the liner Gloucester Castle and two other British ships vanished in the Atlantic with all hands. Now the International Red Cross has received news from Japan about thirty seamen from the liner and crews of the other vessels being prisoners in the Far East.

How the men reached Japan is not known, but it is presumed the ships were sunk by a German raider bound for Japan.

MOSCOW, June 15 (AP).—A twenty-two-year-old girl bomber pilot, Maria Ivanova, has been made a member of the Soviet Order of Patriotic War, first degree, after making 125 flights over the front in seventy days, it was announced today. Maria, a volunteer, was reported gravely wounded on her last flight while bombing a German artillery dump.

"Dina Cashman"

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

CHAPTER LVII

"I've an idea you'd like my place, Dina," Andy said hurriedly. "You are still Rogers Holland's wife, but someday you mayn't be. I had to let you know how I felt, and that's all I want to say to you now. Just that if ever you want me I'll be here in fourteen hours."

"I will want you," she whispered, clinging to his hands.

"My darling, you don't mean that?" Andy asked doubtfully.

"Oh, I do, I do! I've wanted you all this time."

Quite suddenly she was strained against him, and his mouth was hard and hot on hers.

"He'll give you the baby? I know you'll never leave Margaret."

"He? Oh, Rogers; Oh, Rogers, yes, he'll—of course he will."

"He seems to adore you."

"He does. But—she's mine. Rogers would never—he's so generous—besides," Dina stumbled on, "Aline says—he says she said she hoped there'd be other children here someday—she told him that."

"He evidently believes anything Aline—well, I was a fool about her a year ago, so I can't say much," the man said. "And now you know what I came to say, Dina," he added, getting to his feet.

"I'll write you on the plane tonight if you want it in writing!"

"I want everything in writing," she said greedily. And then, with a sudden change of color, "Andy, did Aline ever tell you anything about me—about me and Rogers—and Margaret?"

He stood looking down at her steadily. His own expression sobered a little.

"I think I know what you mean. Aline, when she was angry once, said something—I told her I wasn't interested. As a matter of fact, I think I told her to shut up."

"Was it that Rogers married me because I had to be married to someone—"

"Oh, don't repeat such damn gossip!"

Dina gripped the lapel of his coat. In the soft diffused light of the great hall she looked small and frightened.

"Suppose—suppose I said it was true, Andy?"

"You mean that it is true, Dina?" Andy said after a moment of silence. His voice was grave.

"Yes, it's true."

"That's that," he said. "It explains everything that's puzzled me. There's no use talking, he's a good old guy!"

"He's wonderfully kind!" Dina said fervently.

"Now, look here, darling," Andy began, "I've got to go. You've told me all I want to know about this, and the only thing for you to do is forget it. I've already forgotten it!"

"What's that?"

This last word from Dina and addressed to Hinz, who had approached.

"Sorry, Mrs. Holland, but Mr. Holland had asked for the car to take Mr. Vere Holland home. Hall is here now—"

"Oh, that's all right."

Dina led the way to the library. Rogers and Vere had just finished their game.

"Here's Andy, Rogers," she said, "catching the 7 o'clock plane. Could Hall take him to it first and then take Vere home?"

"Hello, Andy; glad to see you," Vere spoke up. "Say, listen, I'm not going home; I'm heading for San Francisco, and the airport is right on the way."

Andy went first. Dina did not know why, but she had an odd pang of premonitory fear, of uneasiness, as she saw Vere follow him from the room.

Three days later, Dina's letter came. It had not been written on the plane after all, but it came by air mail.

But the instant her eyes met the opening phrase she knew it was not to be peace. Dina followed the few lines, stunned, crushed the letter spasmodically in her hand. She pressed her free hand to her heart as if it were in physical pain. Presently, swallowing with a dry throat, she said aloud, "Oh, no, no!"

"Dear Dina," it began. "I did not understand what you were trying to tell me, but I know now what it was. You asked if it would 'make a difference,' my dear. Of course it does. I'm sorry, but it does! I can't help it; it does! It means that for a long time we may not see each other again and the little farmhouse in Connecticut gets a key turned in its doors forever. Forgive me for hoping it might have been different."

No day passed without a reminder from Aline that she expected soon to be mistress of the old house. She brought Caroline to lunch, and they completely ignored Dina as they walked about appraising the old Chinese cabinets and discussing the history of the rugs.

Aline asked Mrs. Bucket how many of the old crystal goblets were left, who was Mr. Holland's butcher? One day Dina found her and Caroline at the linen closet, Mrs. Bucket standing in sulphurous silence near them while they admired the heavy old sheets and old-fashioned banquet cloths.
